The living legend,
alias Gono-Kid
I don't know how many years we've been friends
but they've all been great.
We've been through experiences together that nobody else could even imagine. You're a great guy, and great friend ~~thanks~~ for putting up with my A.Z.A. Keep the rag dept. clean and of course will be there next year. Looking forward to it

Oscar,
It's been a blast
listening to you-talk about Italian times, (Next year I get to skip with you and Mark) I'm glad you didn't get killed

Alone,
There is a Time to be alone

To dream,
To remember,
To plan

Then suddenly from a world of our Own we are thrust into a hectic land
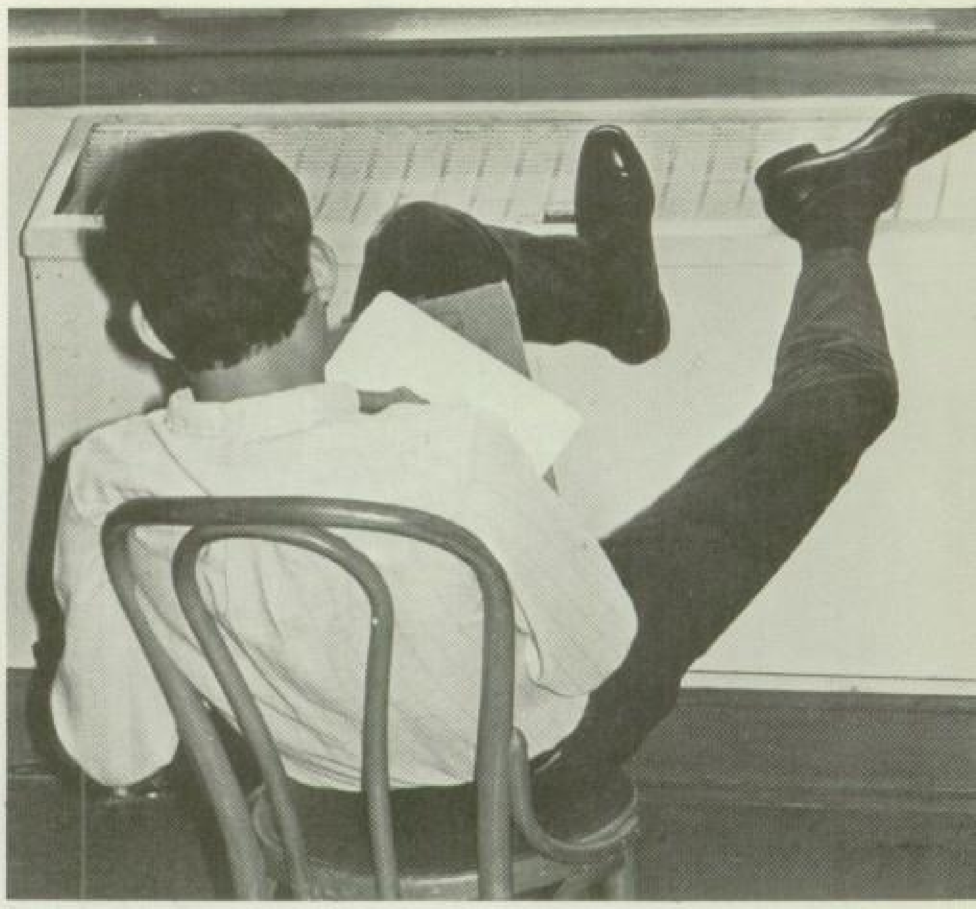
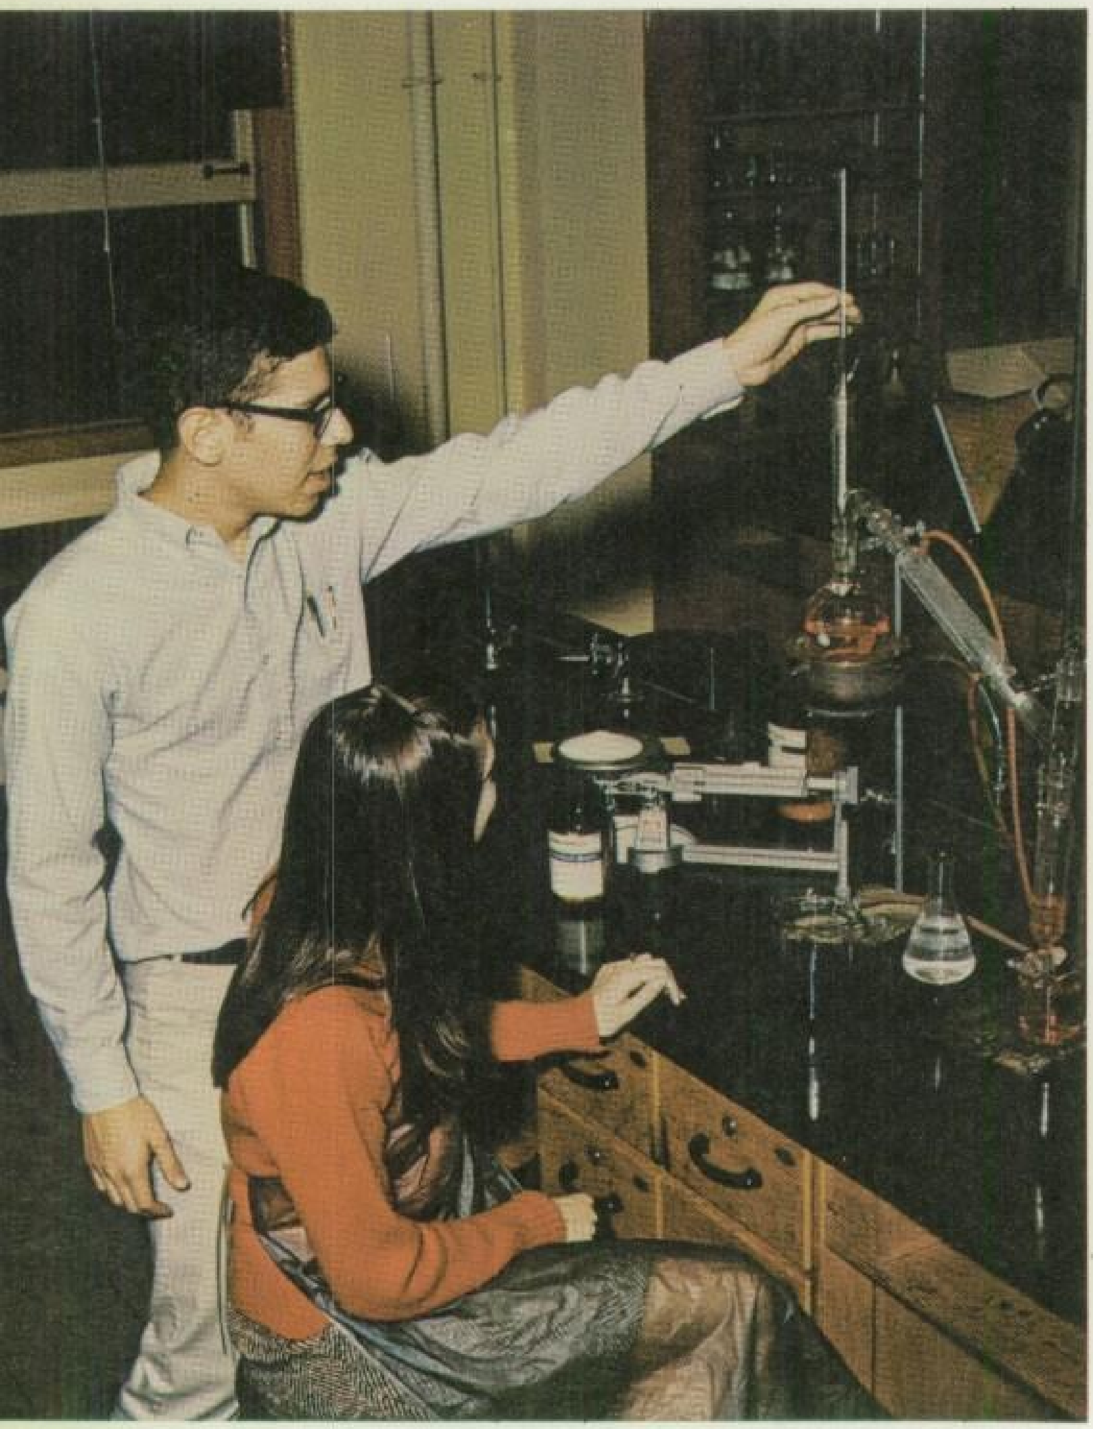
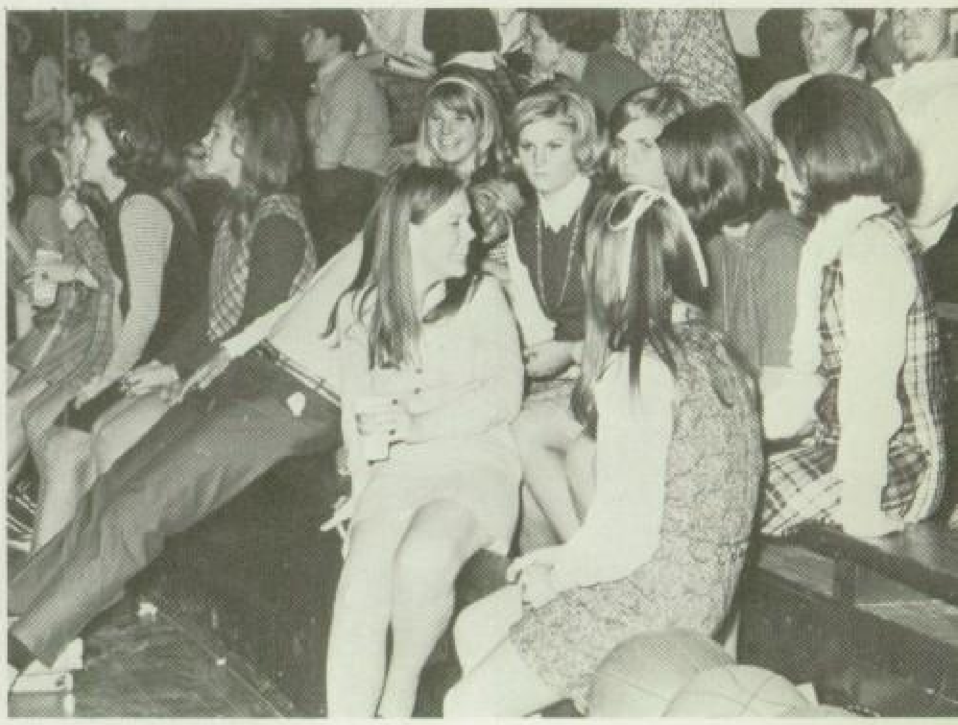
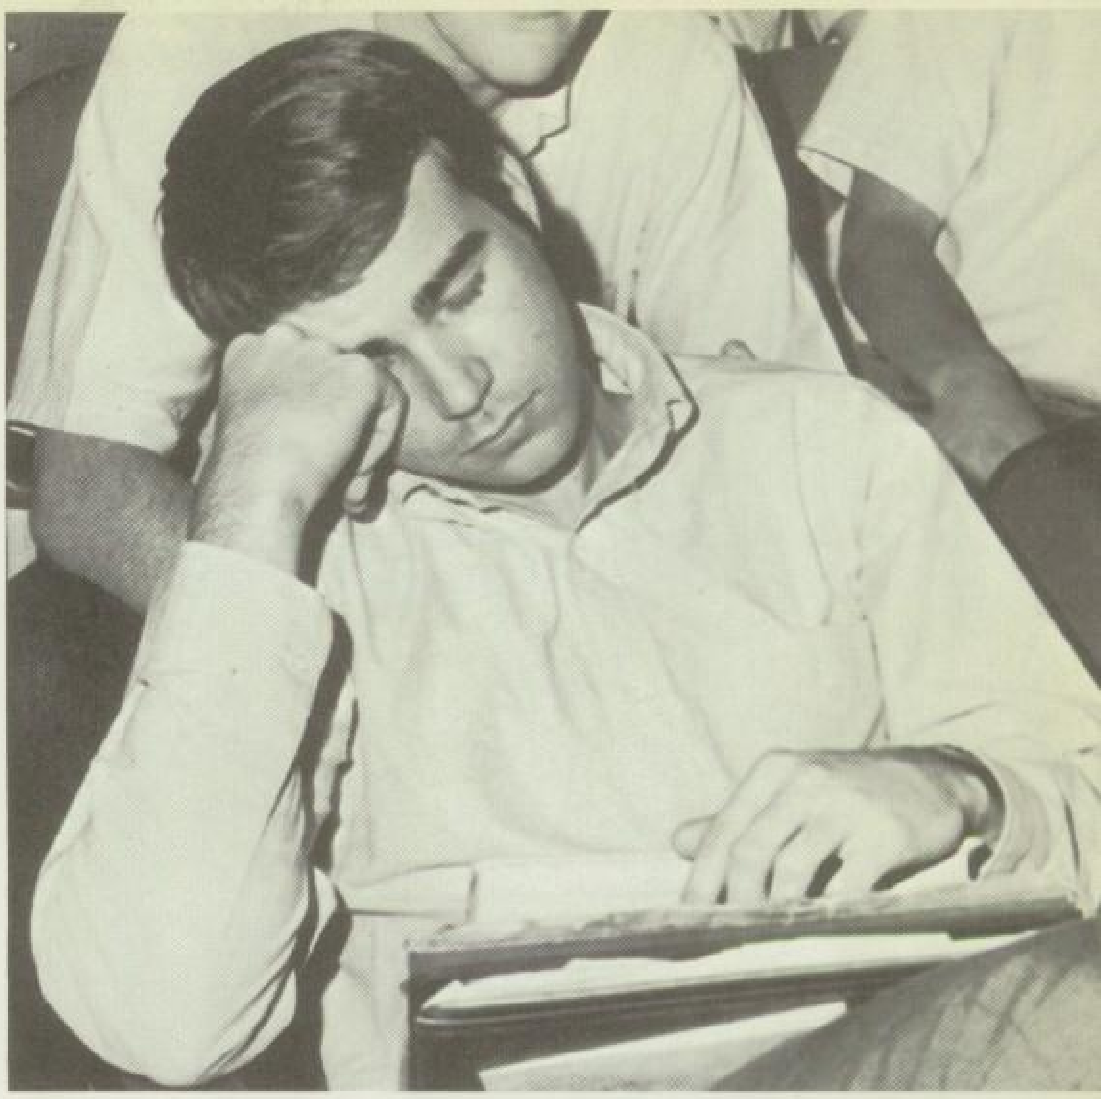
Of study, thought,
Laughter . . .

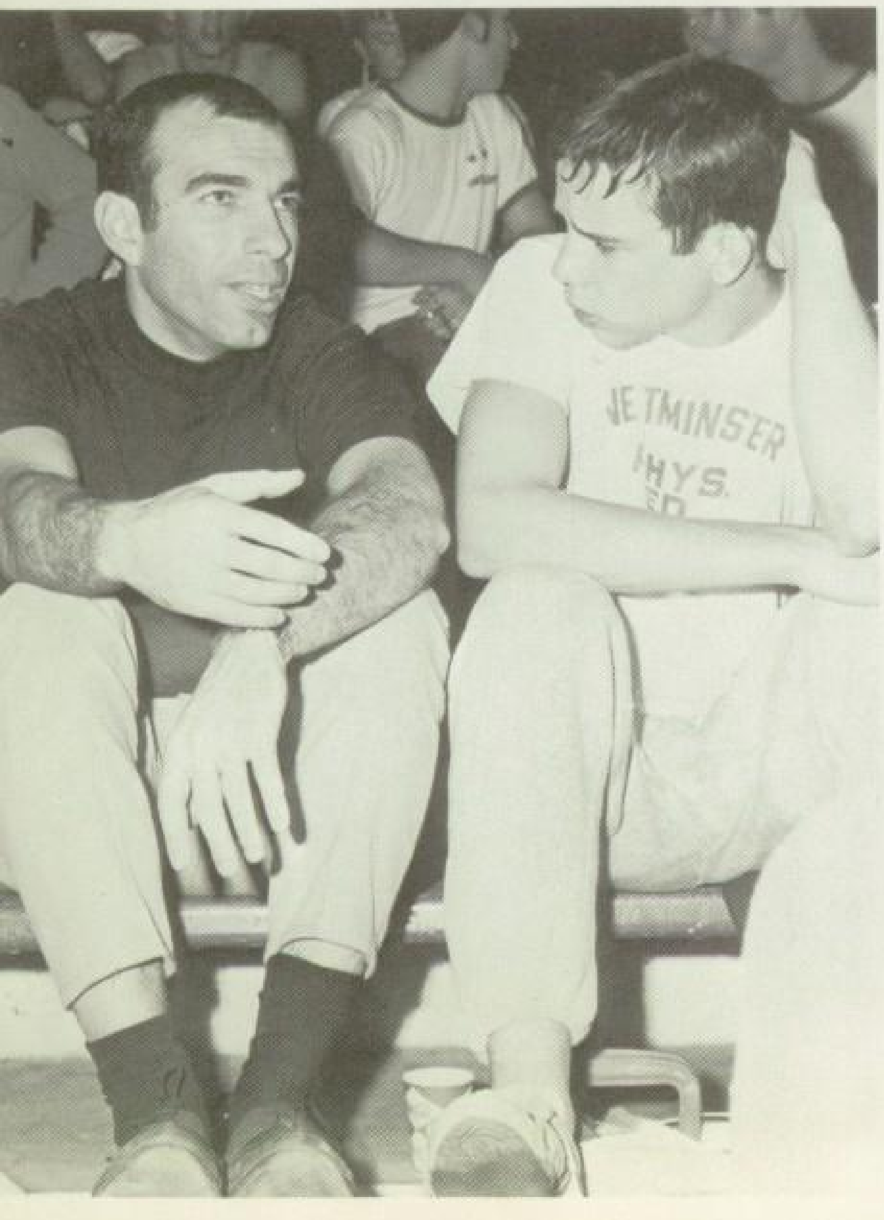






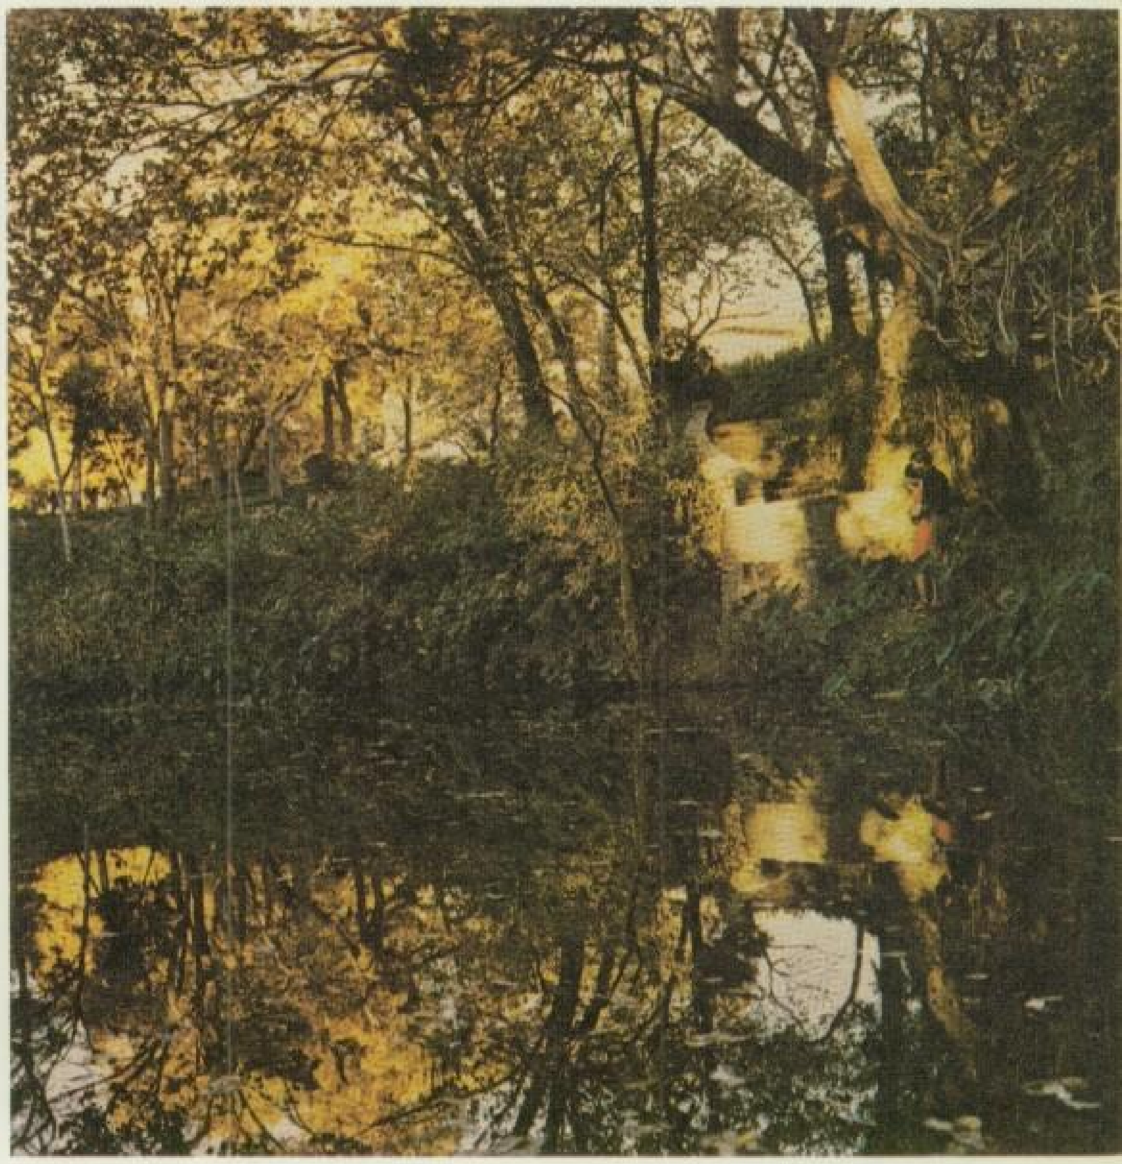


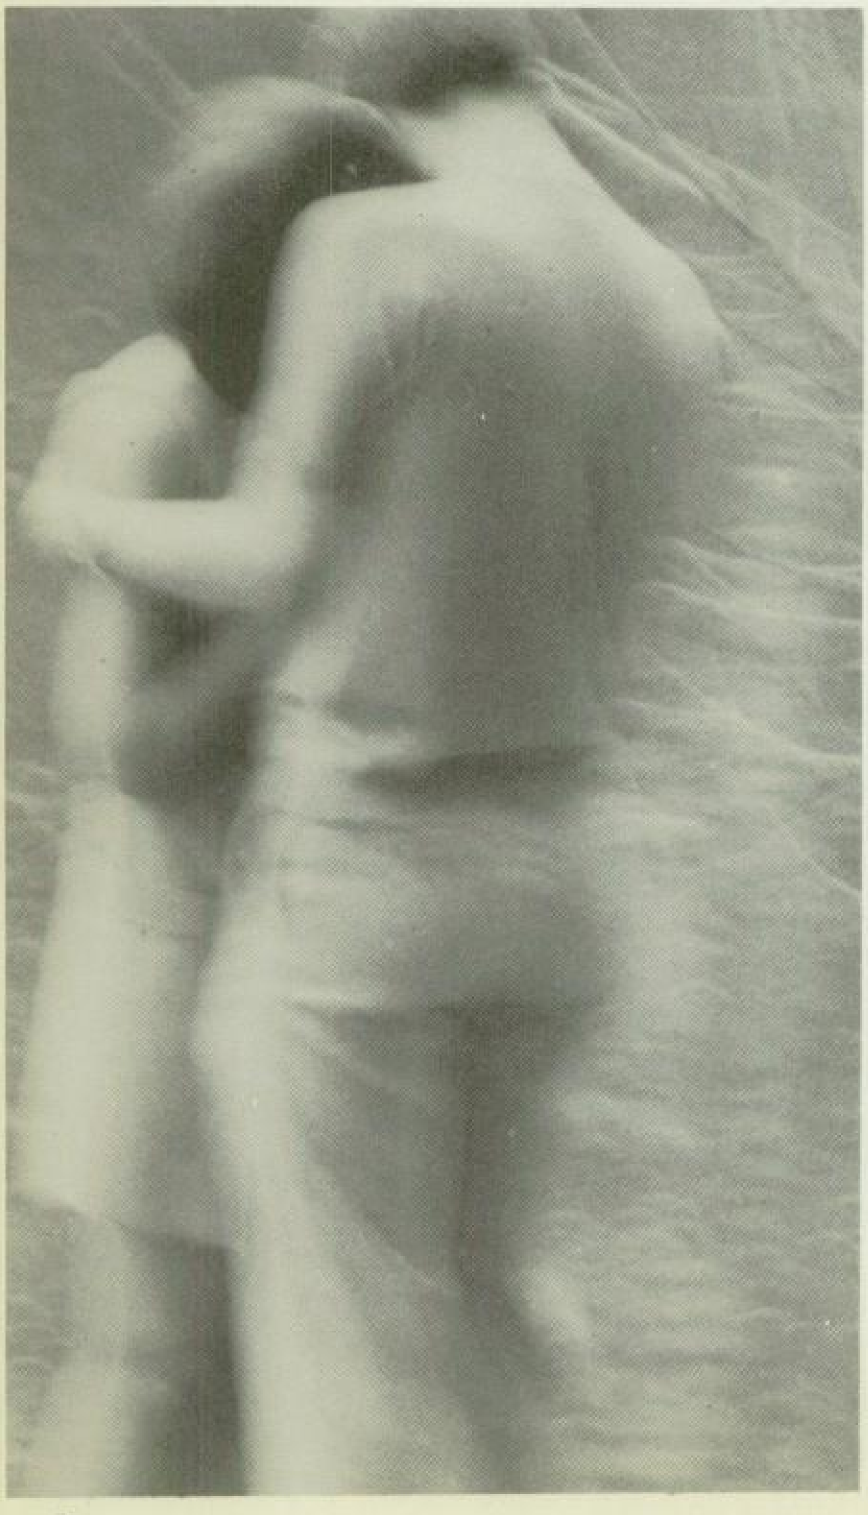
..Of rushing from one place
to another.
We talk with an old friend
or meet a new one,
And sometimes we sleep.

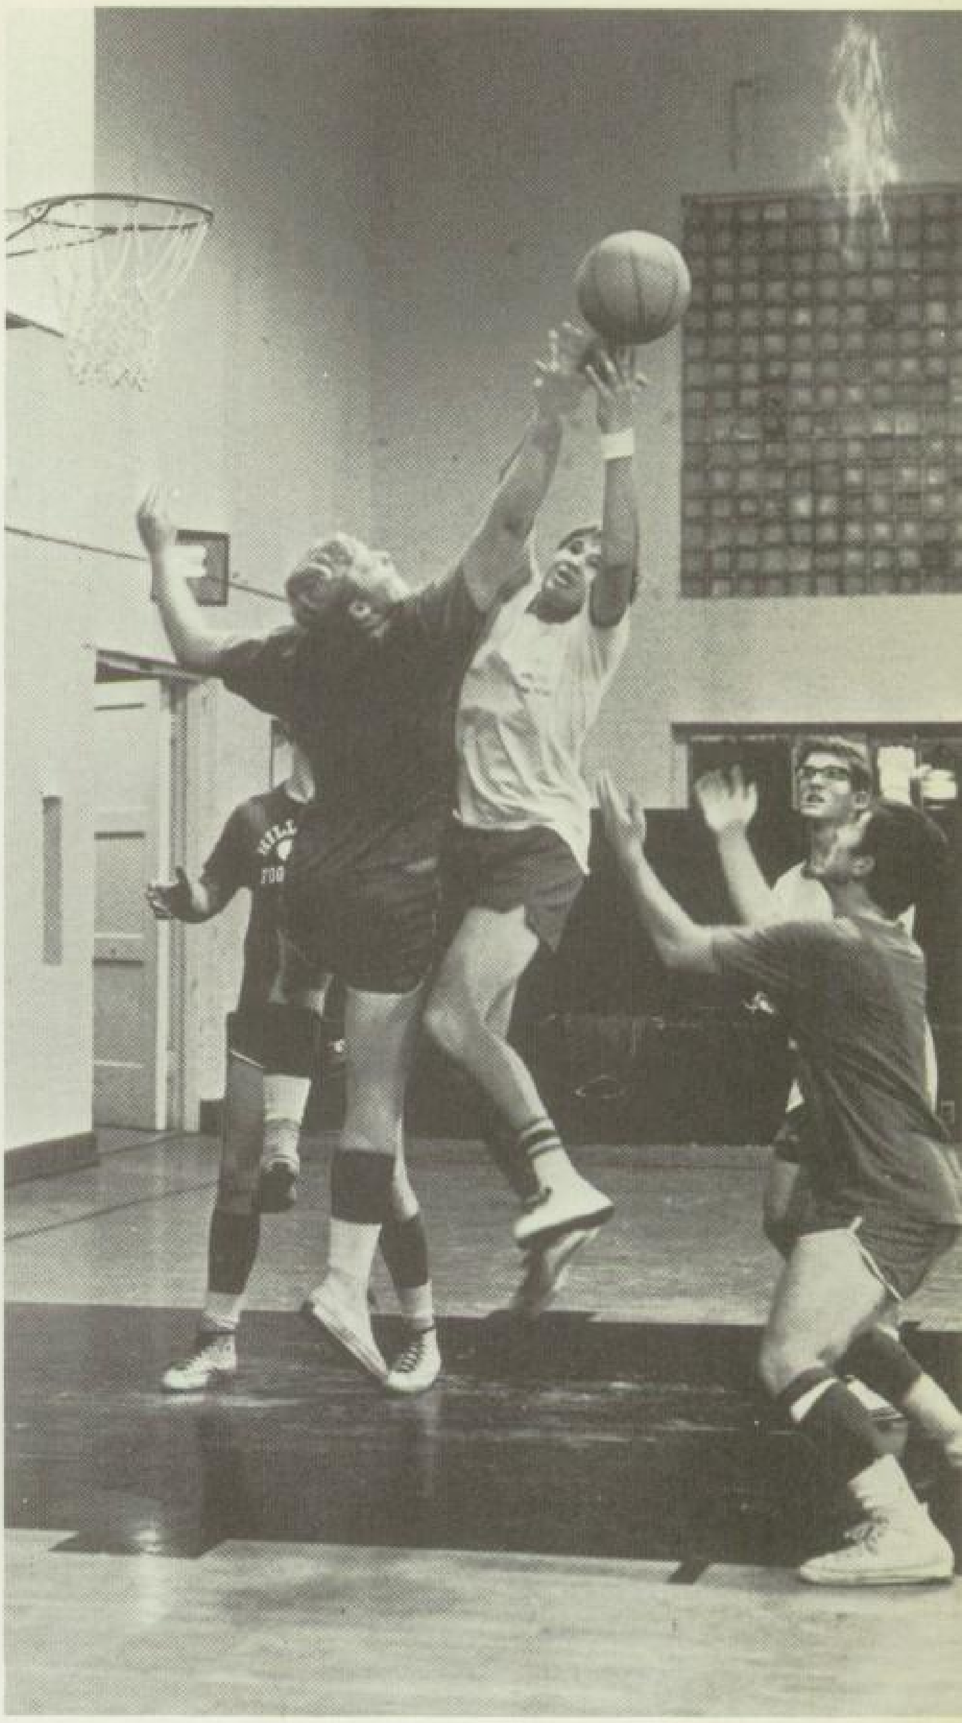


ETMINSER
HYS.

There is a time to be together,
To laugh,
And love,
And make new memories







To hear shouts
Of activity
Through the Cold, crisp air

Today Westinghouse
Tomorrow The Nobel Prize

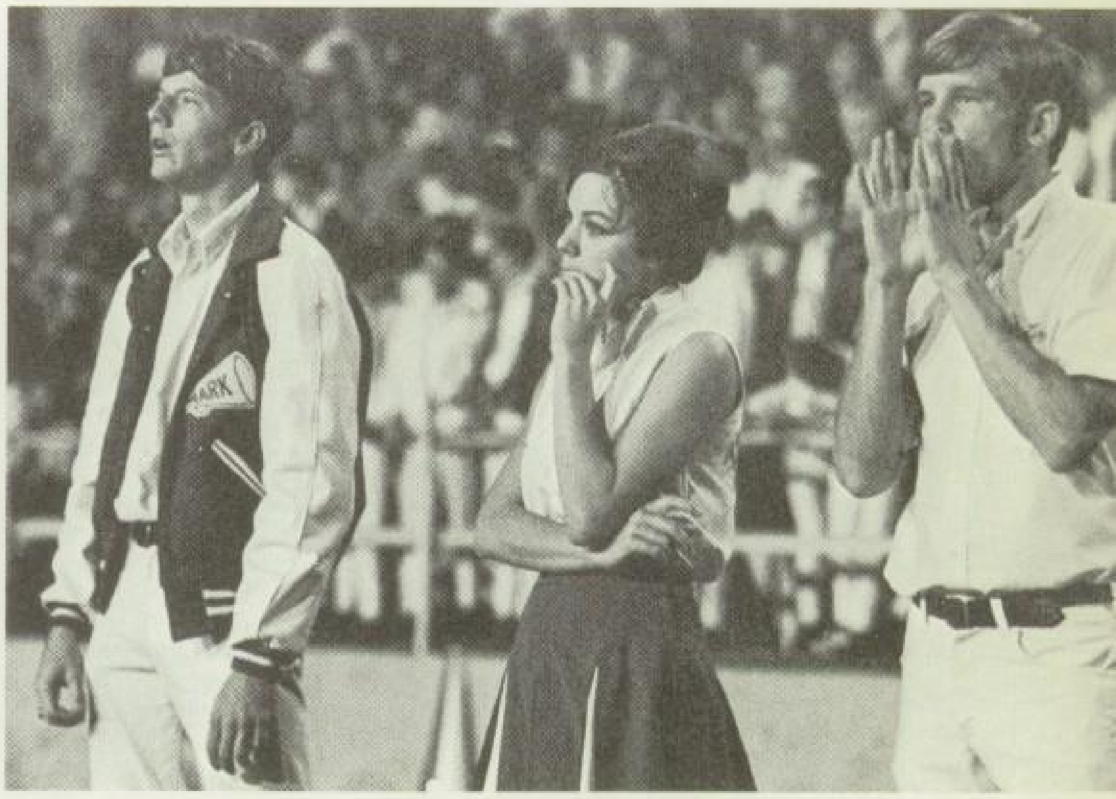
Or feel the warmth
Of a friendly smile.



We share our hopes,
Thoughts and dreams
Of a future away

From a world of study and classroom
A world where we can add our own share of Knowledge to that accumulated by Generations past . . .

. . . And find ourselves in the reflections of others.

BRUTE! THEN FALL, CAESAR!

For her sincere devotion to her students in their academic development and her interest and involvement in their personal endeavors

We dedicate the 1969 Panther to

Mrs. Ann Christian

Sadness is when you're no longer needed.

How about a little south of the border soul?

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the Realities of your existence: . . .

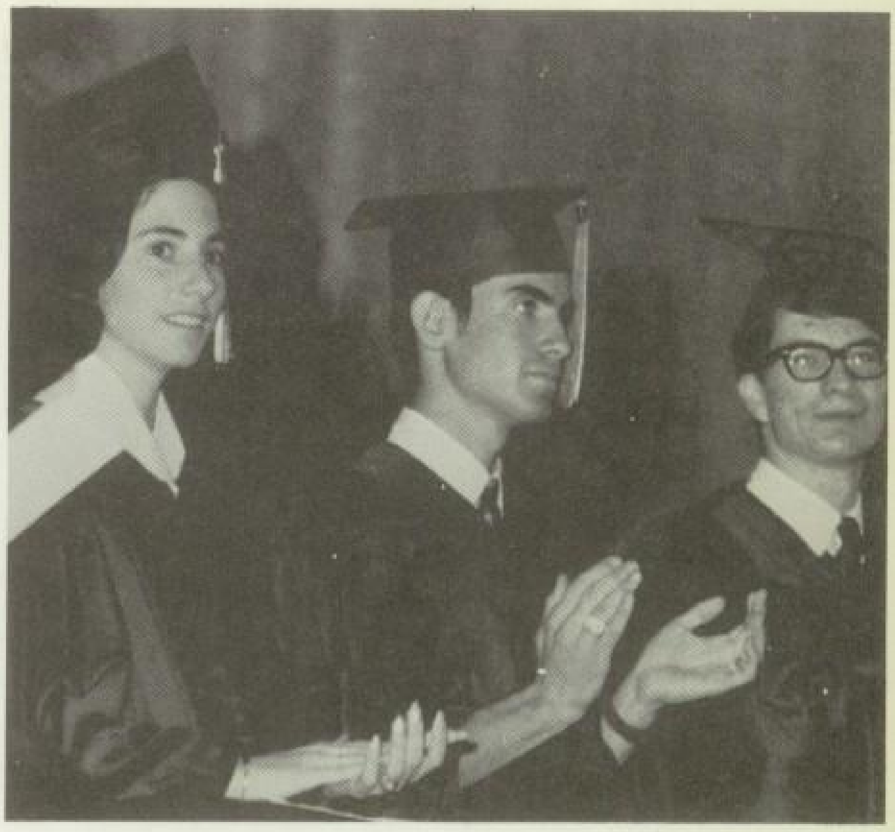
SPRING

If you can't get flowers from a senior boy, what's the next best thing?

. . . The bliss of growth;
The splendor of beauty;
The glory of action; . . .

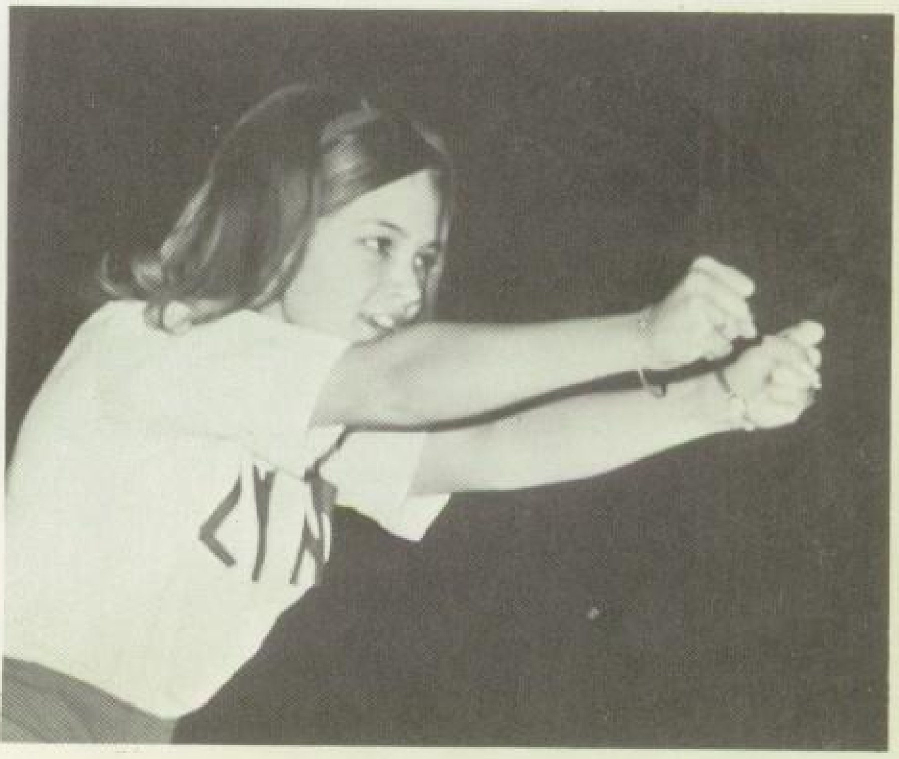
We're off to see the wizard!



The good, the bad and the brain

Let's hang on to what we've got!

Lori, I'll do what you want, just get off my back.



Guess which hand has the M&M's?

You've got the right string baby but the wrong yo-yo.

But coach, I never said you couldn't touch your toes!

. . . For yesterday is already a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today,
well lived,
makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope . . .

Defeet

They're here! They are, they are, they are, they're here! They really are.

... Look well therefore,
to this day!
Such is the salvation of the dawn!

—From the Sanskrit

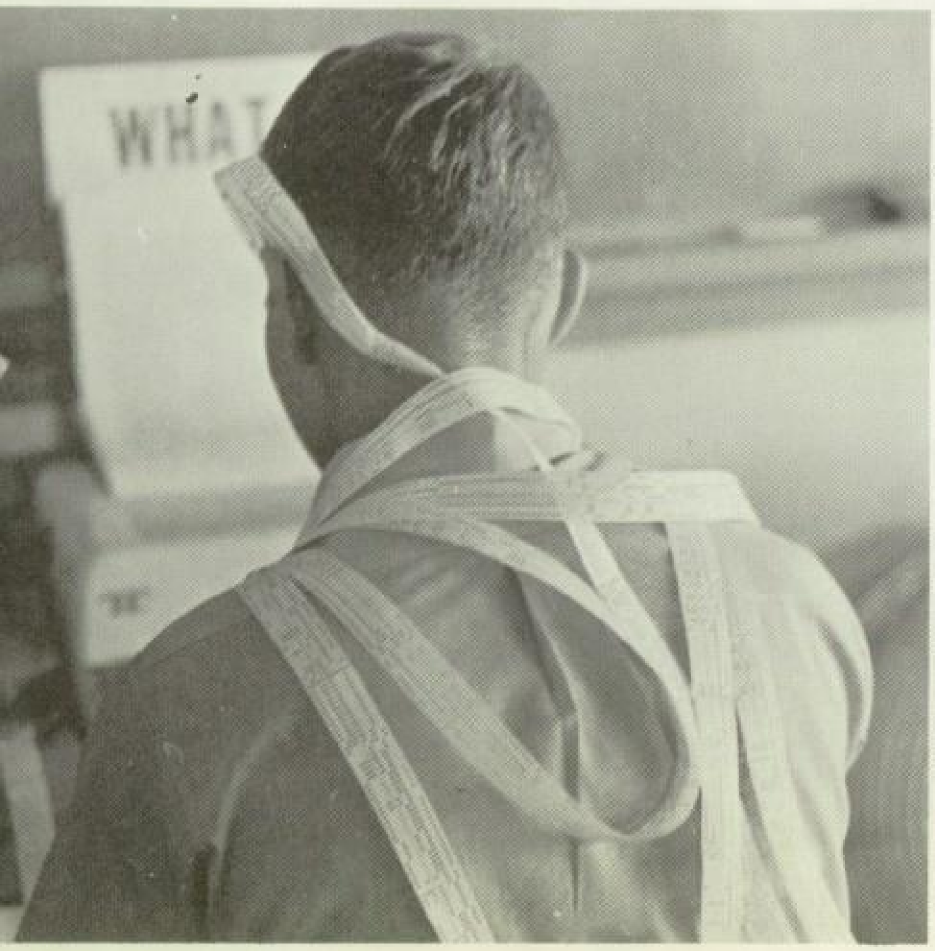
We never thought she'd like anything more than the Hurricane.



Now there's a guy who's really tied up in his work!

SUMMER

I'm a stand-in for Big Tex!

The Lord said,
"Say, 'We' ";
But I shook my head,
Hid my hands tight
Behind my back
And said, stubbornly
"I" . . .

It doesn't matter what I wear, I can still be the flying nun!

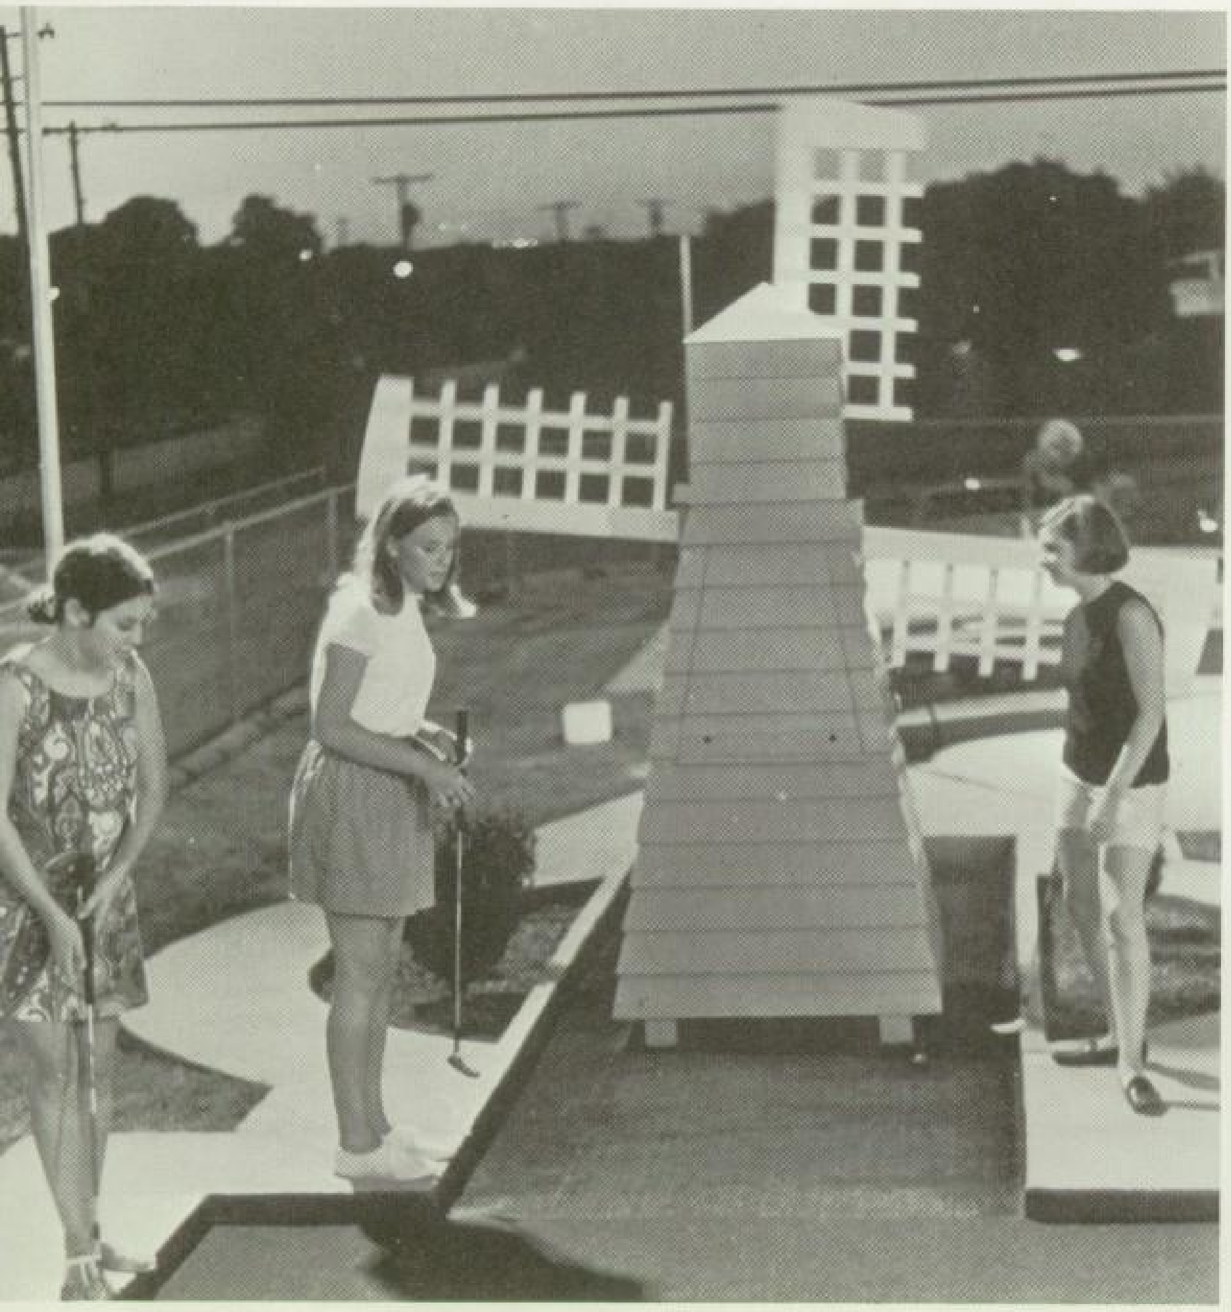
H.H.S. exchange student, Judy Roberts, celebrates a birthday on board ship!

Kiss me you fool.

I think I hit a vein!

What he needs is mouth to mouth resuscitation.

. . . The Lord said,
"Say, 'We' ";
But I looked upon them
Grimy and all awry.
Myself in those
Twisted shapes? Ah, no!
Distastefully
I turned my head
Away,
Persisting,
"They" . . .



hree Hillcrest students travel to Holland for the international miniature olf play-offs.

And ven de moon iss full, I turn into de verevolfe!

... The Lord said,
"Say we,"
And I at last
Richer by a hoard
Of years and
Tears,
Looked in their Eyes and found
The heavy word ...

I'm tired of singing "Little Rabbit Foo, Foo." Let's try "Row, Row Your Boat!"

Judy Roberts and her "sister" in Norway.

A funny thing happened to me on the way to the farm!

It really chokes you up to know you're wanted.

For senior girls on Saturday night, life has its ups and downs.

... That bent my neck
And bowed my head.
Like a shamed
Schoolboy then I
Mumbled low,
"We,
Lord"

—Kay Baker

Hey look! It's a real boy.

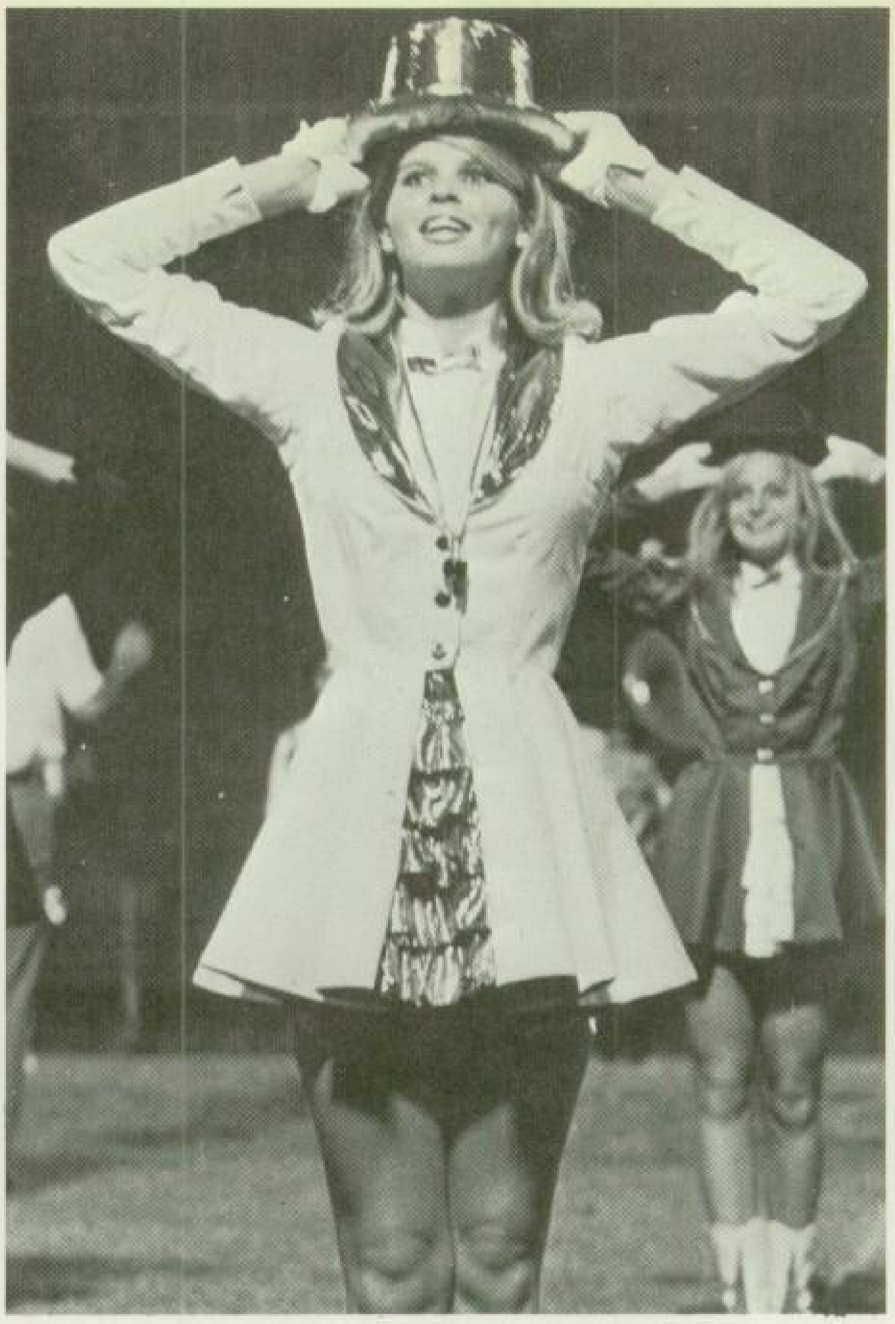
FALL

Take time to live;
The world has much to give,
Of faith and hope and love:
Of faith that life is good,
That human brotherhood
Shall no illusion prove; . . .



I wonder if my Ultra-Brite is working?

Sock it to me!

Put on your high top sneakers 'cause we're goin out tonight!

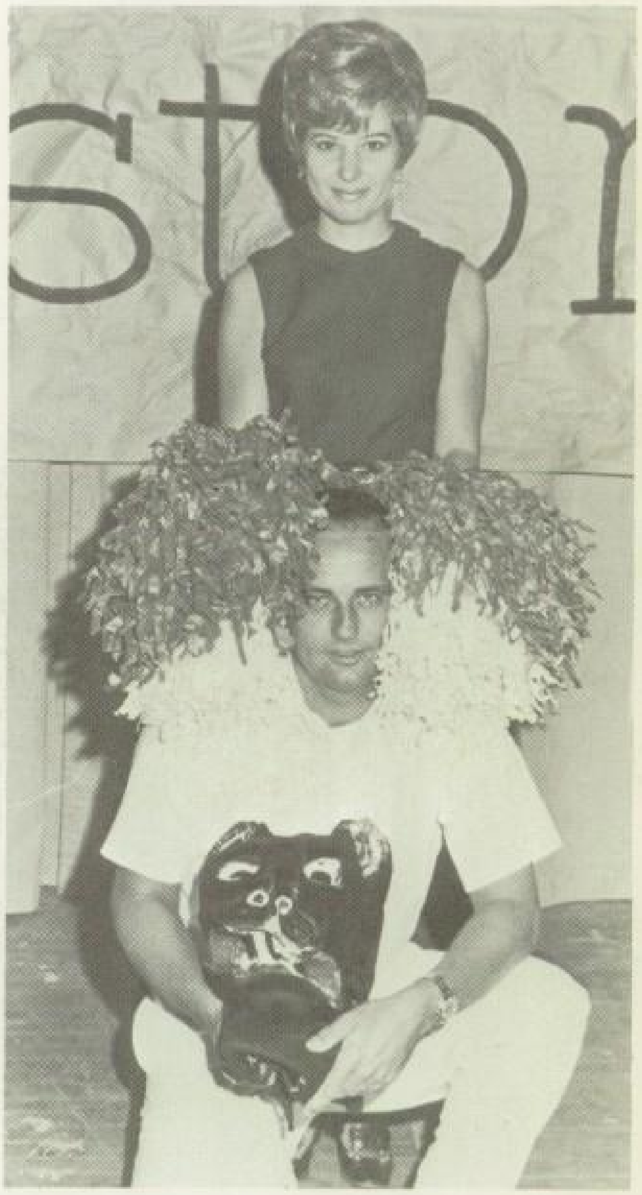
Who's the funny looking cheerleader on the end?

I dreamed I made a splash in my Fruit-of-the-Loom T-shirt!

... Of hope that future years
Shall bring the best, in spite
Of those whose darkened sight
Would stir our doubts and fears ...

Don't fire 'til you see the whites of their eyes.



This rainy weather just ruins my hair-do.

Jackie Stubblefield reigns as Homecoming Queen.

Take time to live,
The world has much to give
Of sweet content; of joy
At duty bravely done;
Of hope, that every sun
Shall bring more fair employ.

We're ready for action.

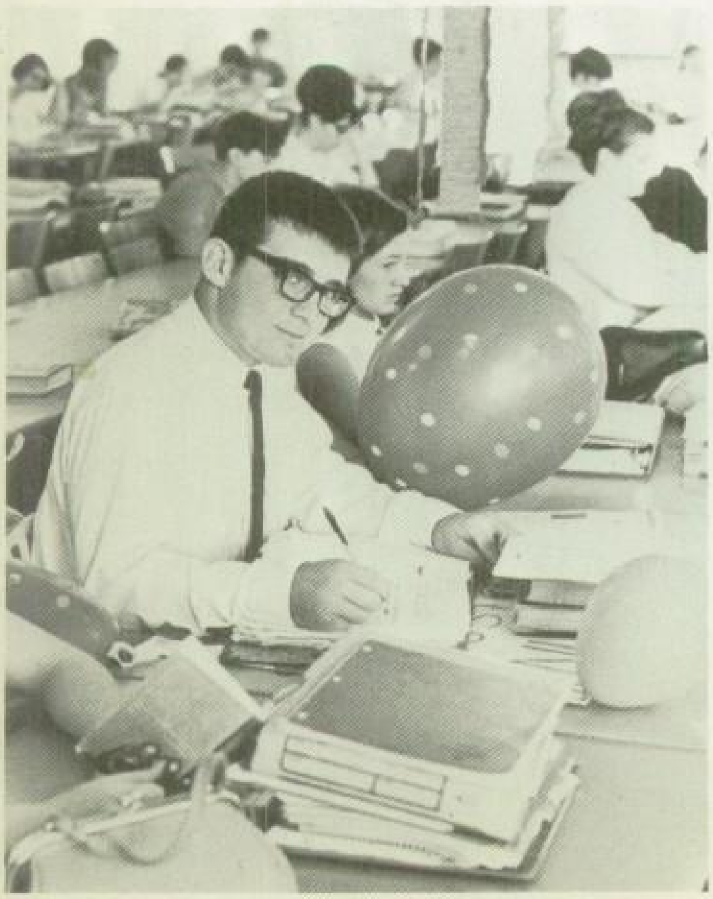
Hold'em back Cheryl.



But, I always eat a balloon for lunch.

Hear no evil.

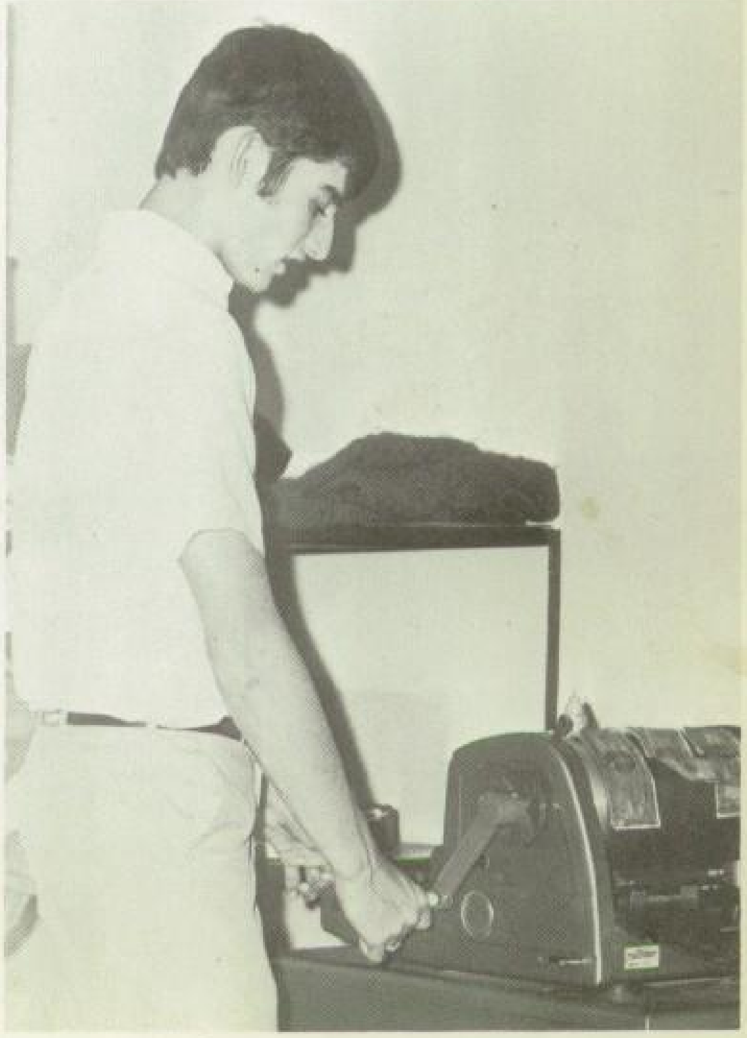
No, no Debbie. You drink out of the other end.

Like father like . . .

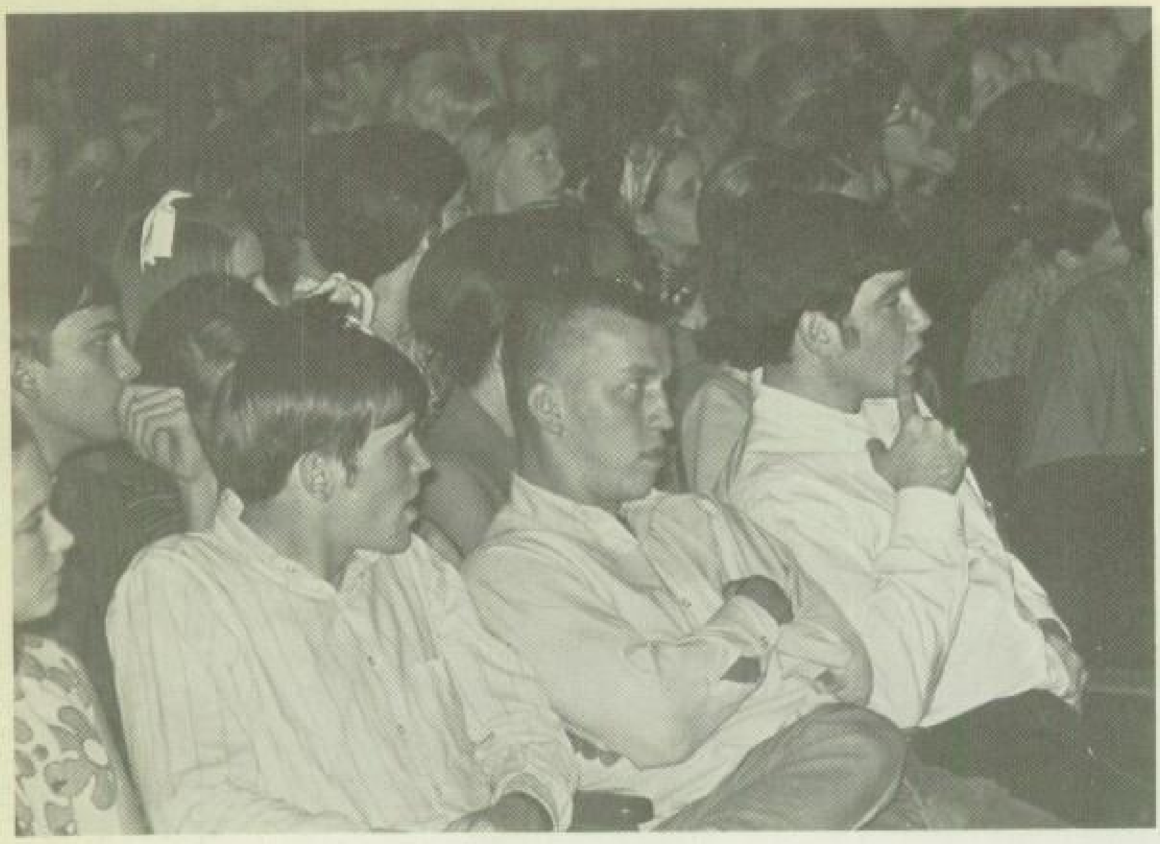
Take time to live;
For life has much to give
Despite the cynic's sneer
That all's forever wrong;
There's much that calls for song.

Thomas Curtis Clark

What are these new exercises they're teaching the gym classes?



Stan, that's not what it's for!



Do we care?

Youth is not a time of life,
It is a state of mind.
It is a temper of the will,
A quality of the imagination,
A vigor of the emotions;
It is a freshness of the deep springs of life.

Are you decent yet Jill?

Baker's Best beats all the rest!

Raquel . . . where?!

Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite of adventure over the love of ease.

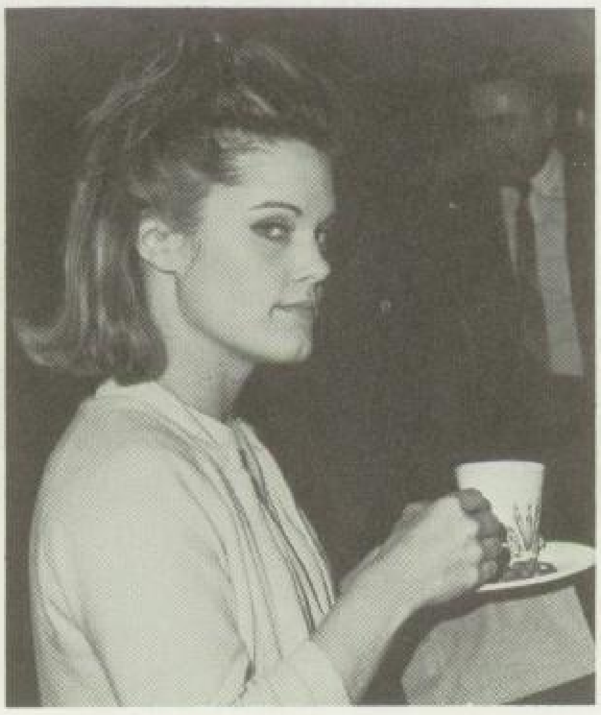
My cup runneth over.

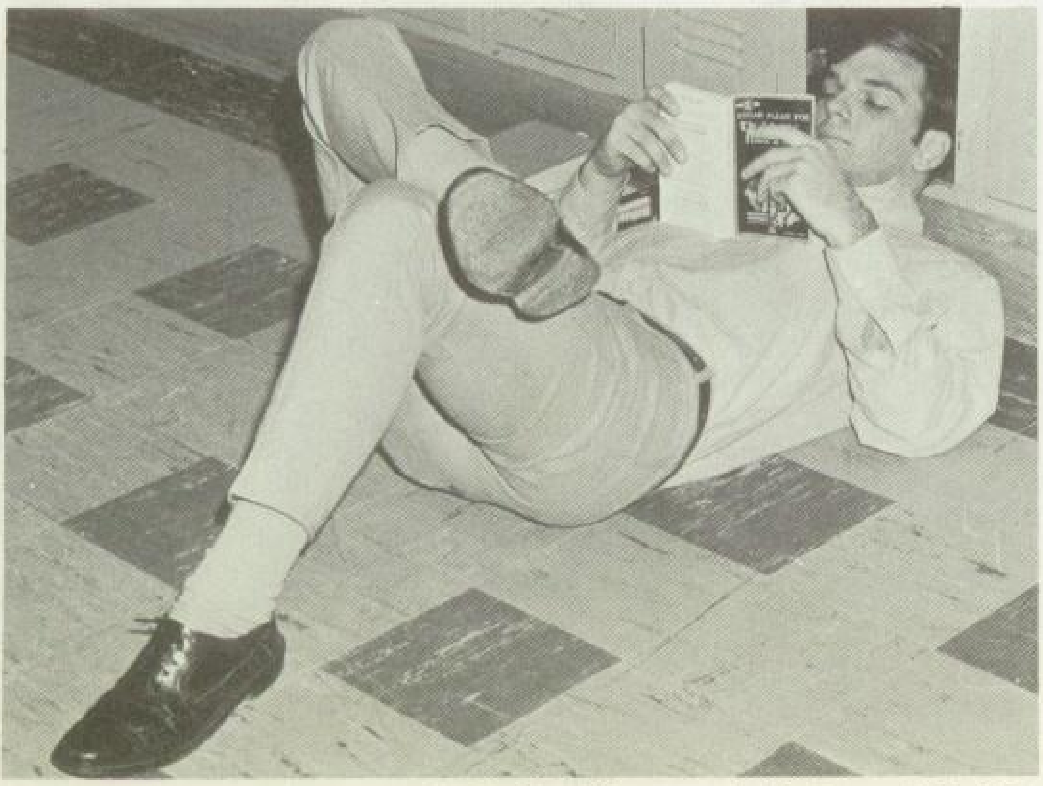
Mr. Irresistible?



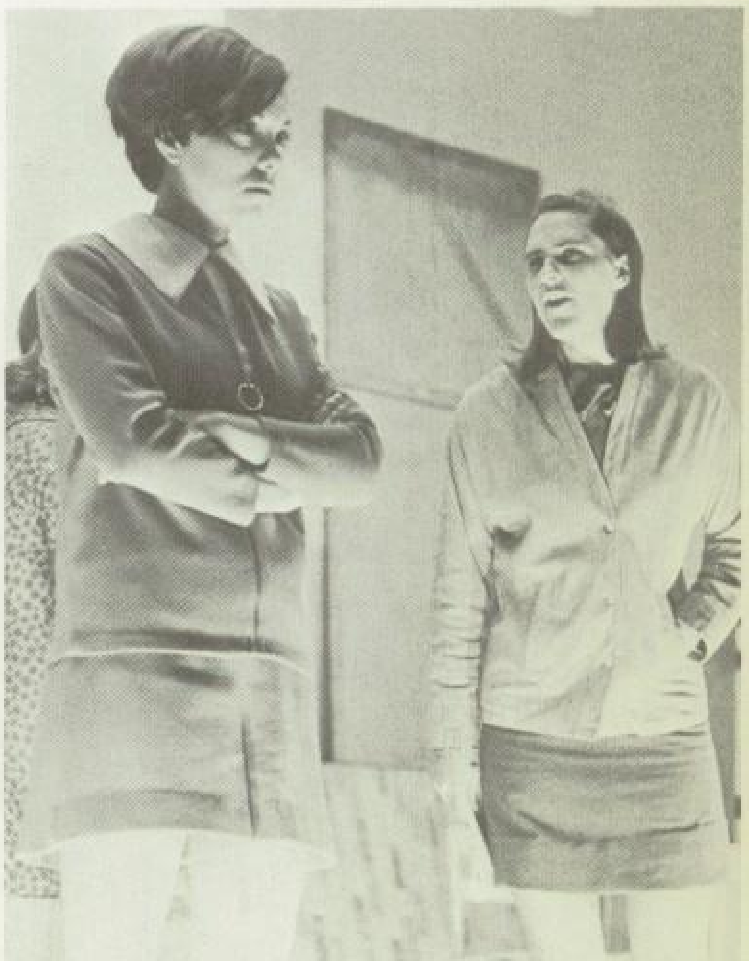
There's a what in my coffee?

. . . Get out and live it each hour of the day,
Wear it and use it as much as you may;
Don't keep it in niches and corners and grooves,
You'll find that in service its beauty improves.

—Edgar A. Guest



Due to the overflow, study hall will meet in lockers 105-118.



But darling, if your best friends won't tell you . . .

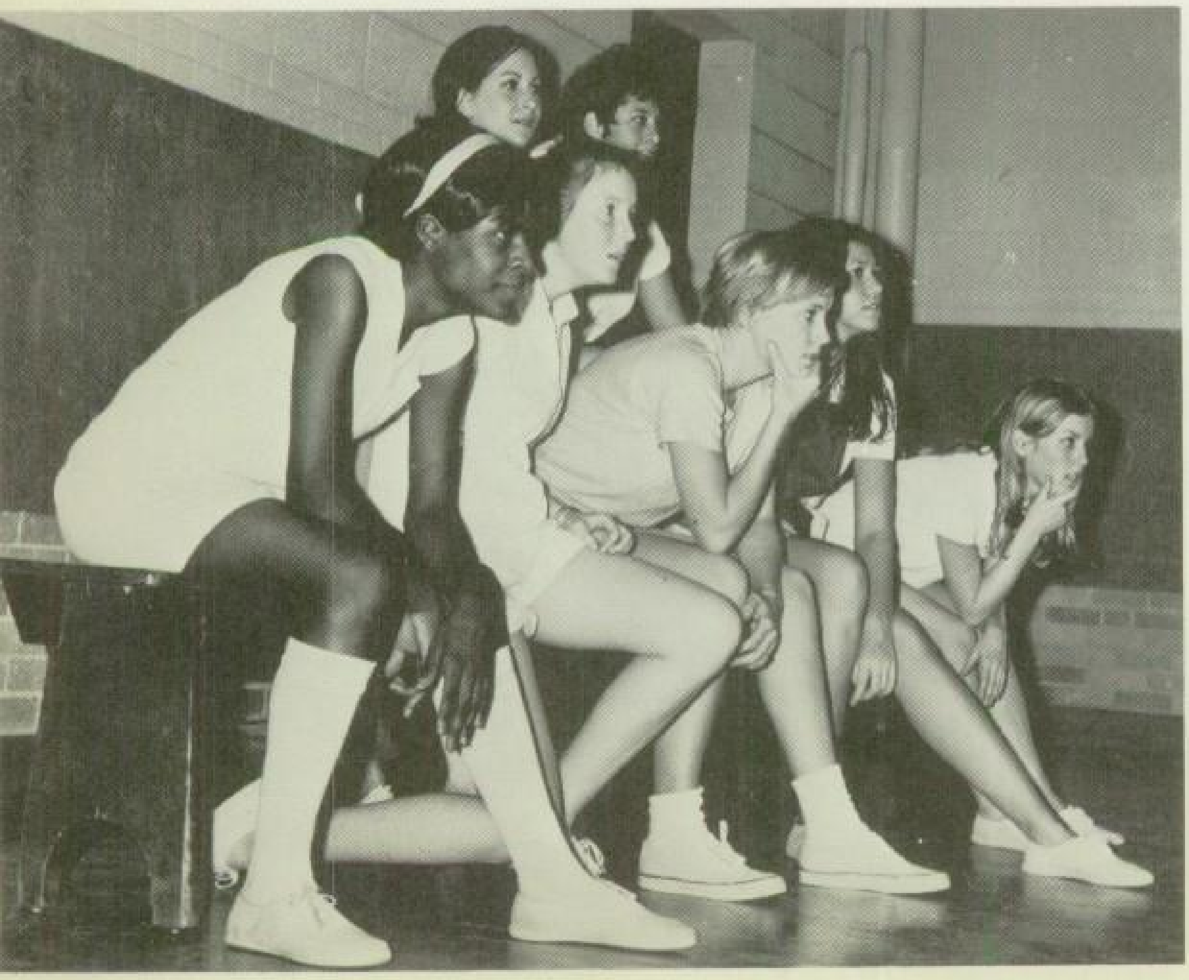
Mr. Skinner sure is a kookie cutter.

Winter

It's the dull road that leads to the gay road;
The practice that leads to success;
The work road that leads to the play road;
It is trouble that breeds happiness . . .

"Santa" arrives in Dallas by jet instead of by sleigh.

Your orders, please.

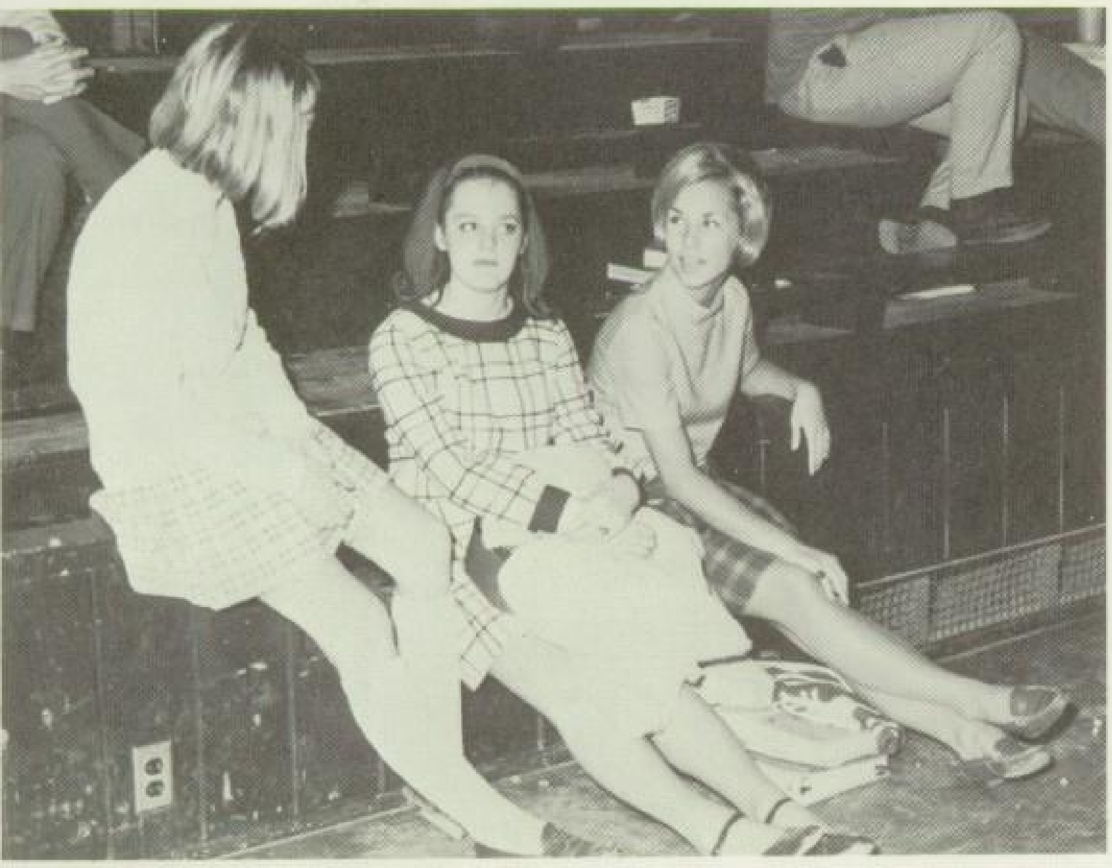


They finally introduced sex education into the girls P.E. classes?

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas.

Hey! Those Arthur Murray lessons really helped.

Will you hand me that little green bottle? I think I have an Excedrin headache.



But he said he'd meet me right here.

It's the hard work and merciless grinding
That purchases glory and fame;
It's repeatedly doing, nor minding
The drudgery drear of the game . . .

The rip roaring Red Shirt review.

And here's another Panther pouncing.

. . . It's the passing up glamor or pleasure
For the sake of the skill we may gain,
And in giving up comfort or leisure
For the joy that we hope to attain . . .

Put your shoes on! This is no time to play " . . . this little piggy went to market!"

re you sure this is the way to play cowboys and dians?

And then the Lord said unto them ...

... It's the hard road of trying and learning
Of toiling, uncheered and alone,
That wins us the prizes worth earning,
And leads us the to the goals we would own.
—Edgar A. Guest

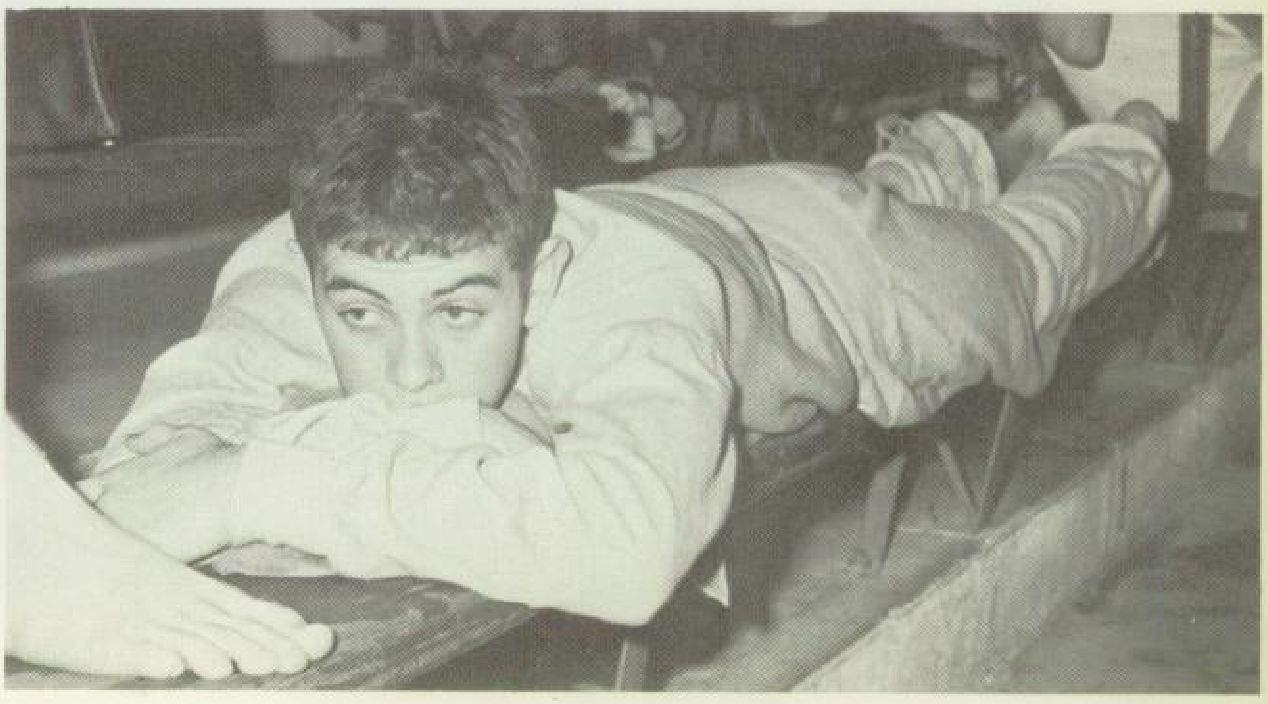
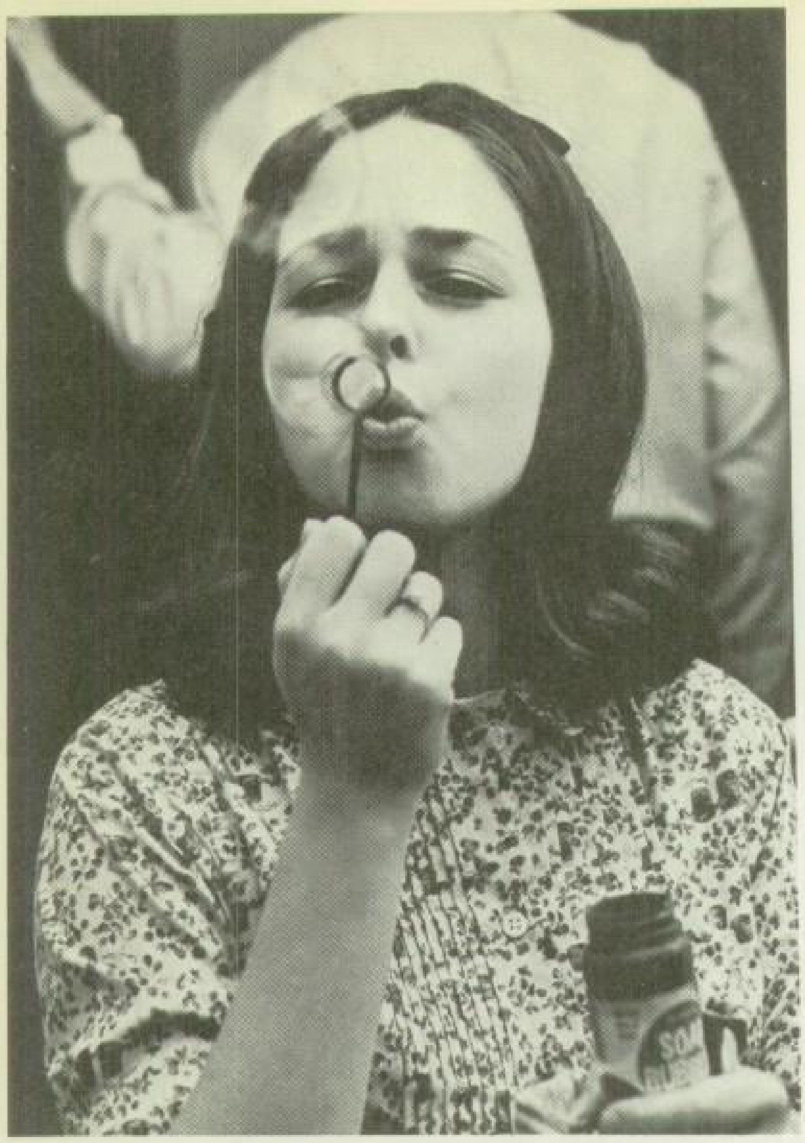
Oh Eugene, don't fiddle around with me!



I think that I shall never look
At a limb as pretty as a foot.



If only I had some money I could be bubbles cash.

Life is a gift to be used every day,
Not to be smothered or hidden away;
It isn't a thing to be stored in the chest
Where you gather your keepsakes and treasure your best; . . .

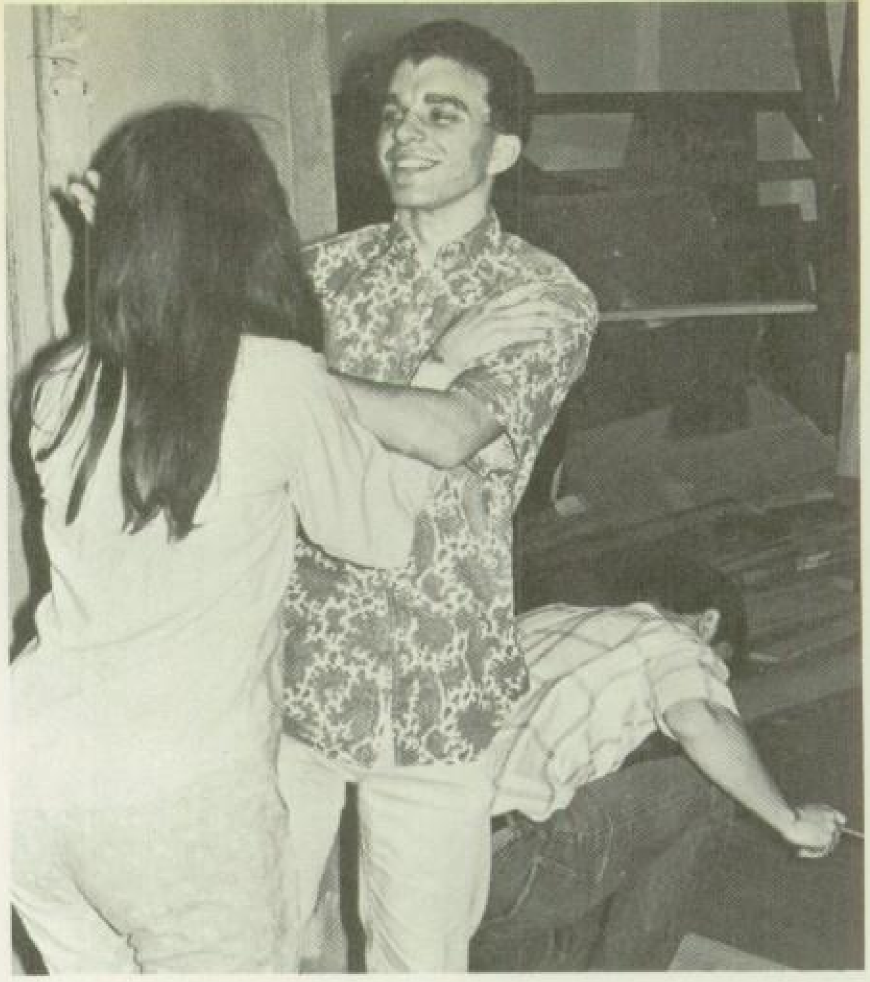
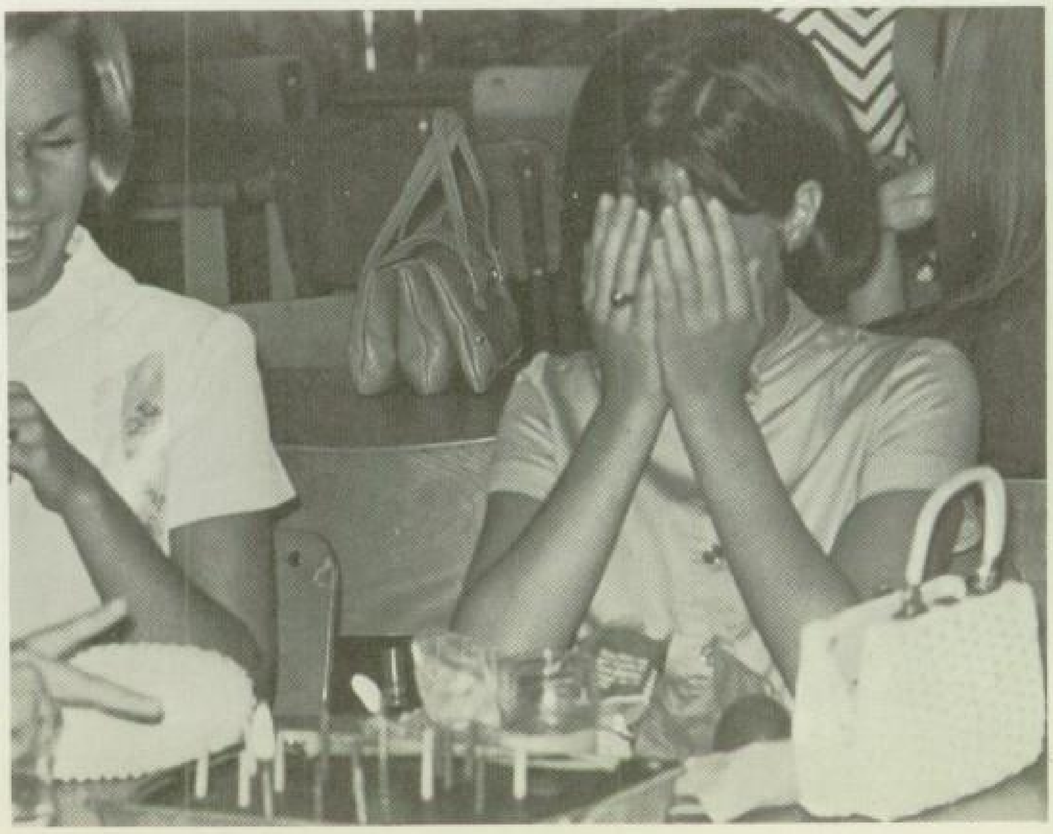
I don't know. I'll have to look that one up in my biology book.



Hai-Karate does it every time!

Do you believe in love at first sight?

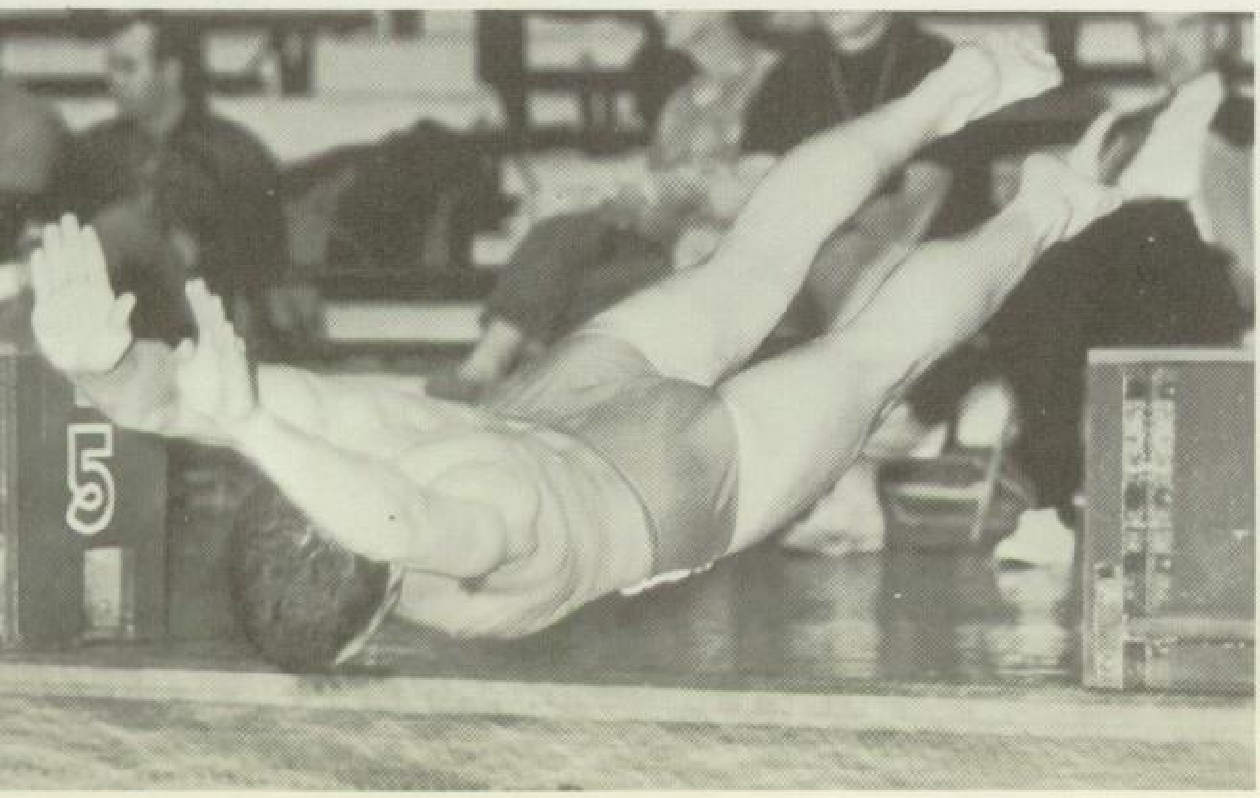


But it's not my birthday!

The black queen goes on the red king.

. . . It isn't a joy to be sipped now and then
And promptly put back in a dark place again . . .

Bet you can't eat just one!

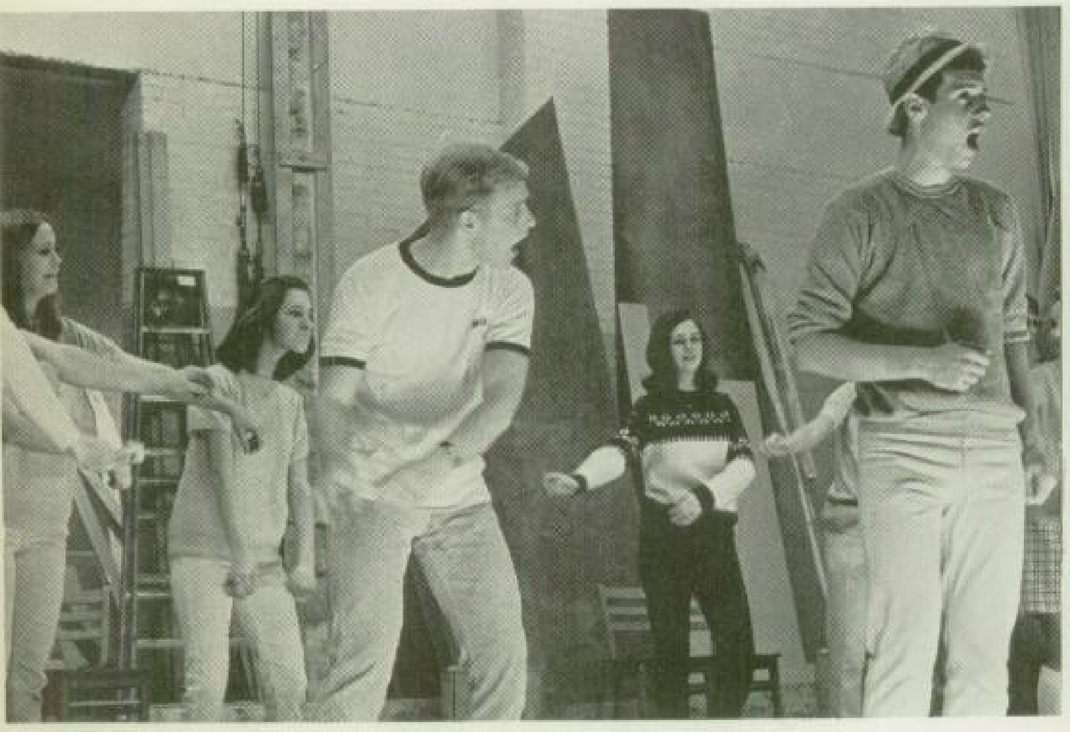


Hold it! I think you're going to like this picture.

D. J. seems to be wasting away!

Mr. Barnes' gym class produces dazzling results.

Hey, what's up?



You do the Hoakie-Poakie and you ...

Times We Had Together

Oh! . . . and then he kissed me!

We take over where Bonnie and Clyde left off.

I'll trade you two Archies for one Millie the Model.

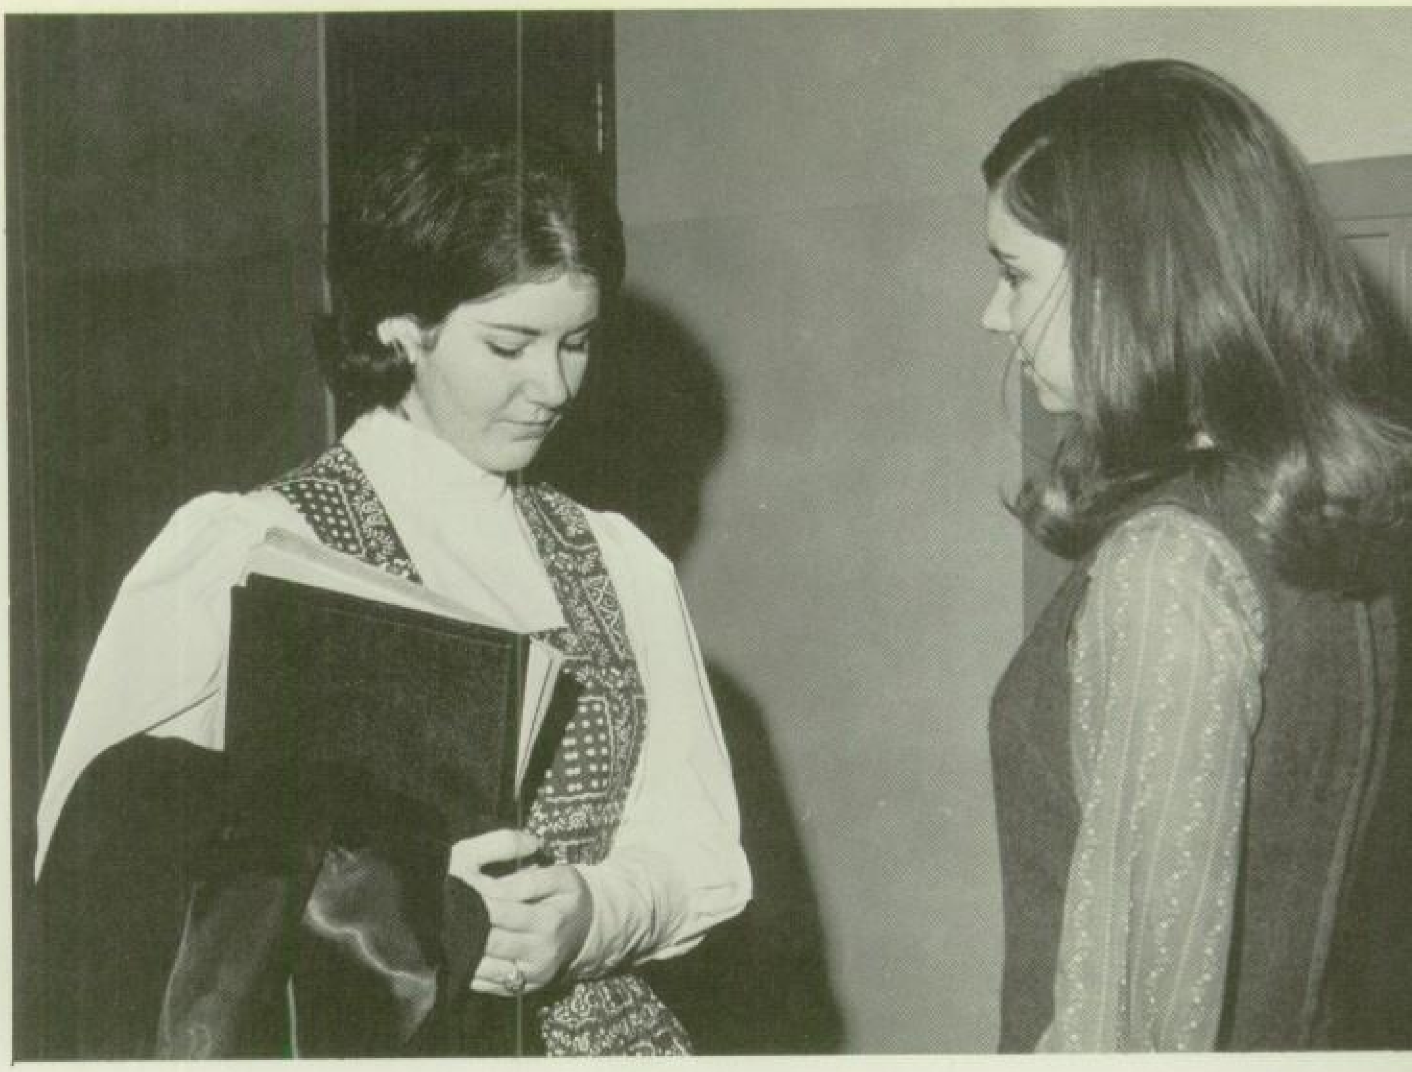
But, Gladys, I told you never to call me at the office.

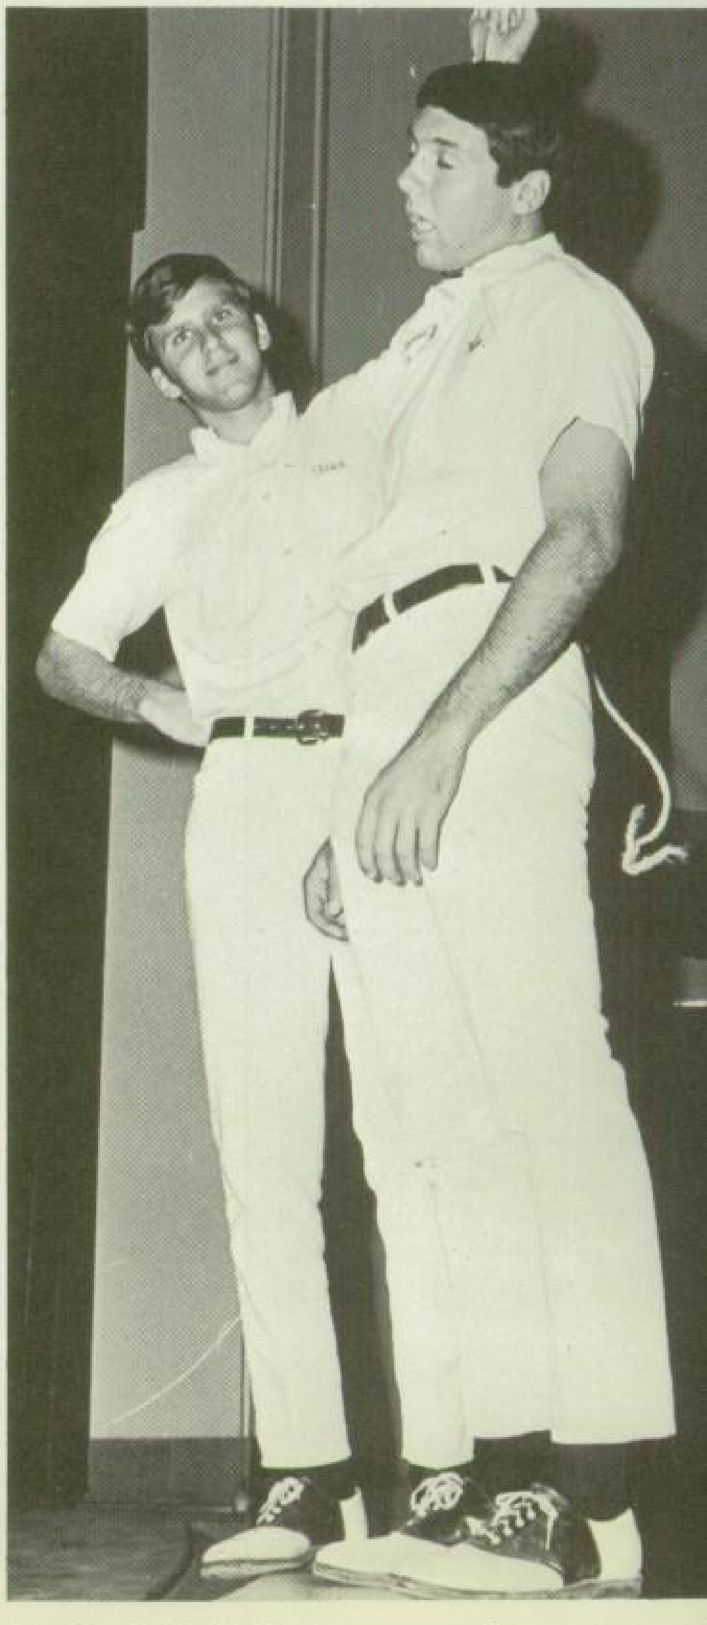
We Grew Up Together

Teacher, teacher, I declare ...



Look at me, when I talk to you.

Get us out of this jungle, Jim.



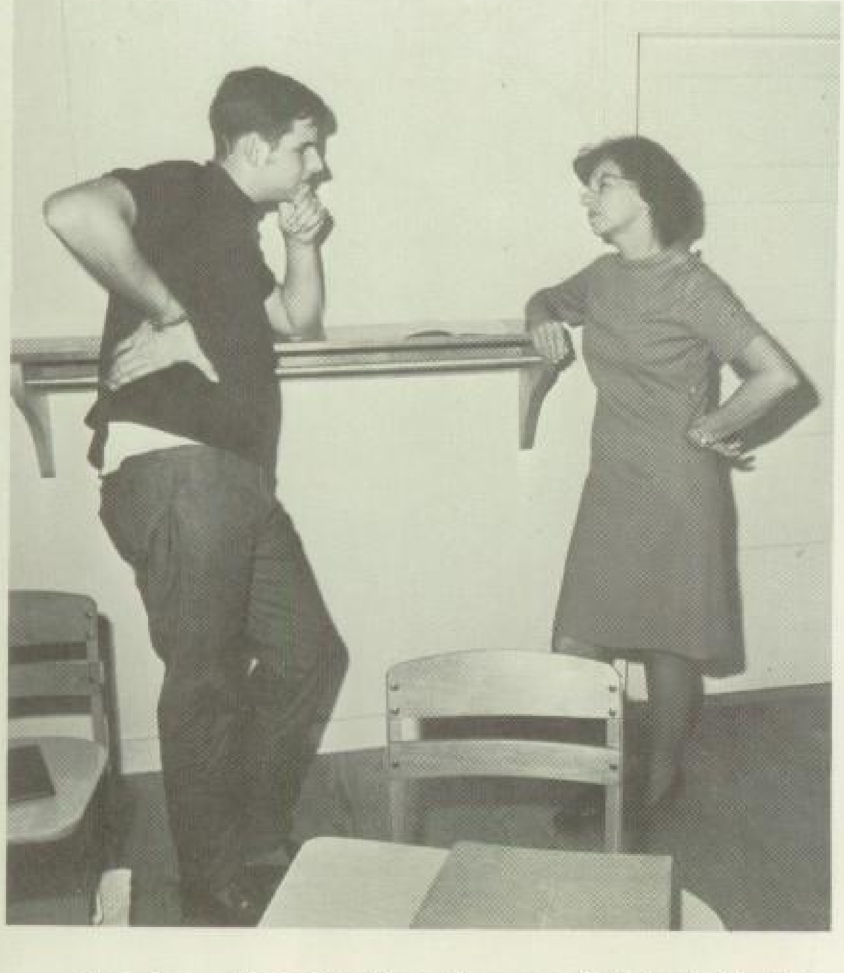
Don't feel bad, everyone has some sc of hang-up.

If you're happy and you know it, clap your hands.

Splendor in the Grass.

Robin, what big ears you have.

All masters must sign their work.



Ha, ha—Mrs. Huffstutler you blinked first.

We Learned Together

We Played Together

How many of these girls really had dentist appointments today?

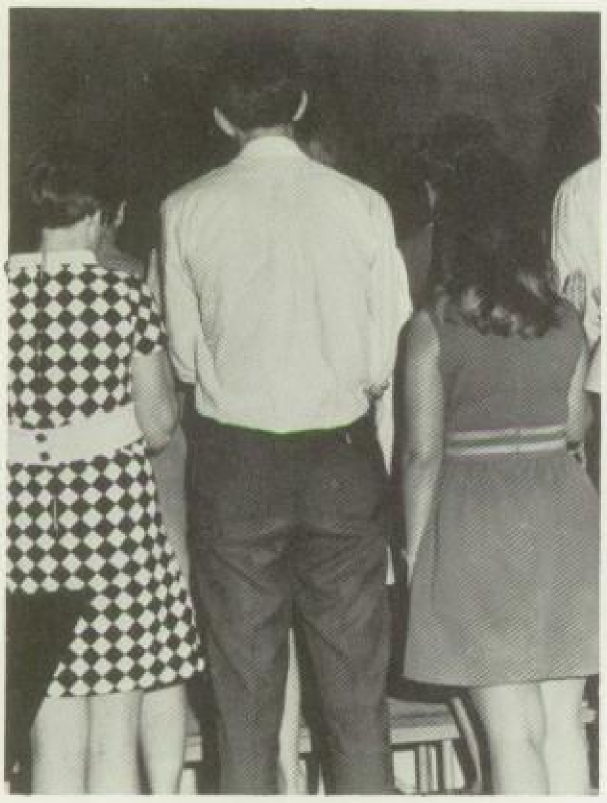
It may not look like much, but you'd be surprised how peddling saves gas.

Whaddya mean—Clorox needed here?

A Camel can run for a mile on just one lollipop.

One can never have too many paper dolls.

Janitor tryouts are getting harder every year.



Don't everyone volunteer at once.

Oh! These darn hangnails.

The Clod Squad.

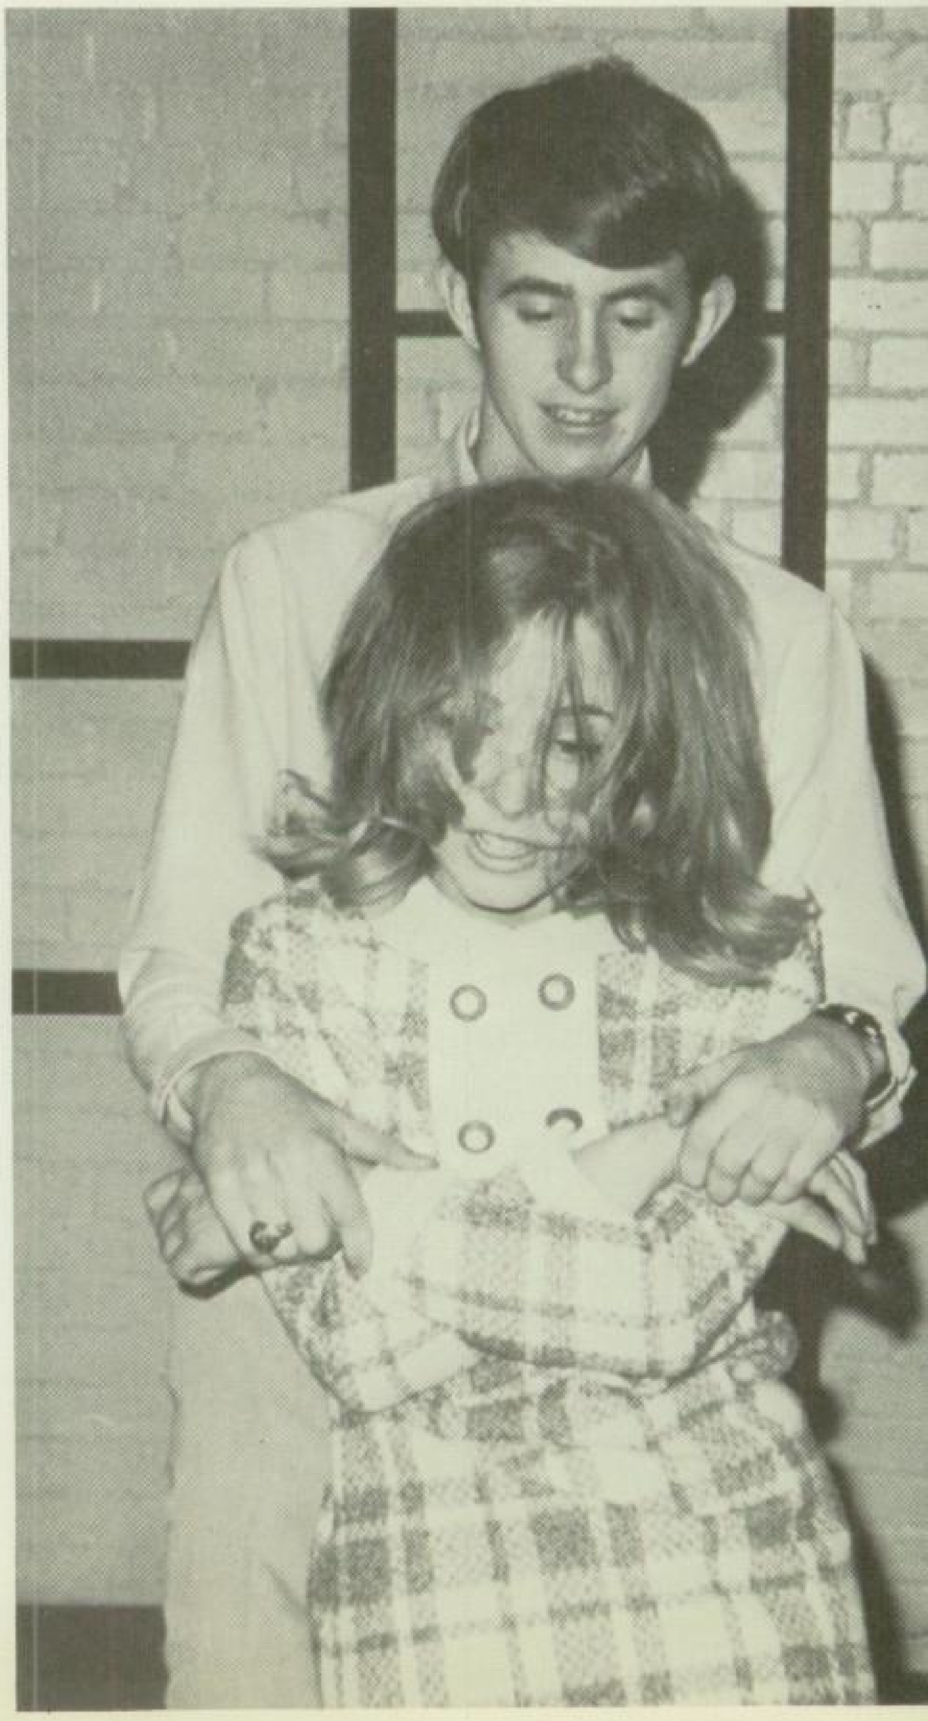
We Worked Together

We Laughed Together

You're right ... it was made in Japan.

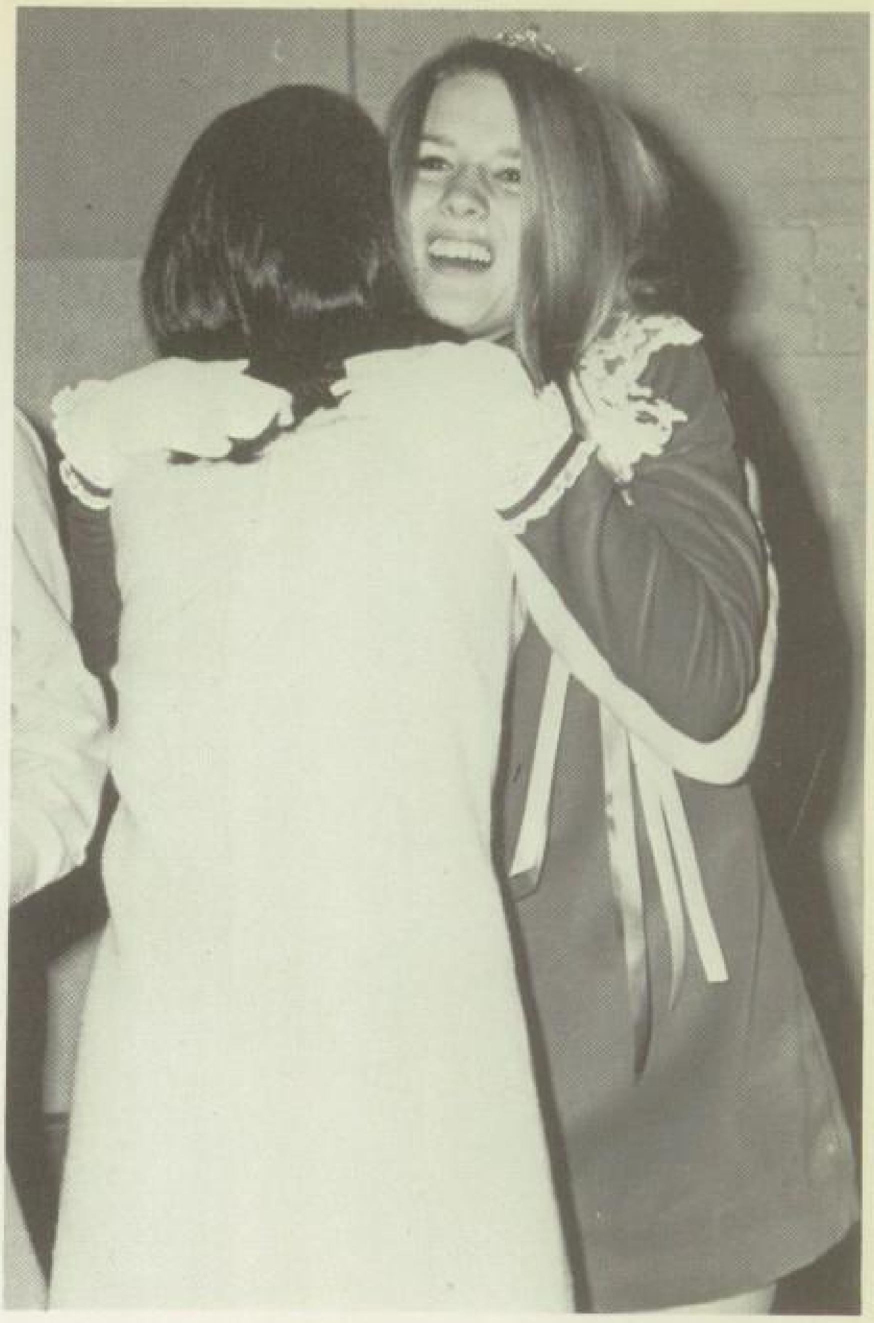
"Hi, fellas!"

I wouldn't touch you with a 10 foot broom, you old witch!

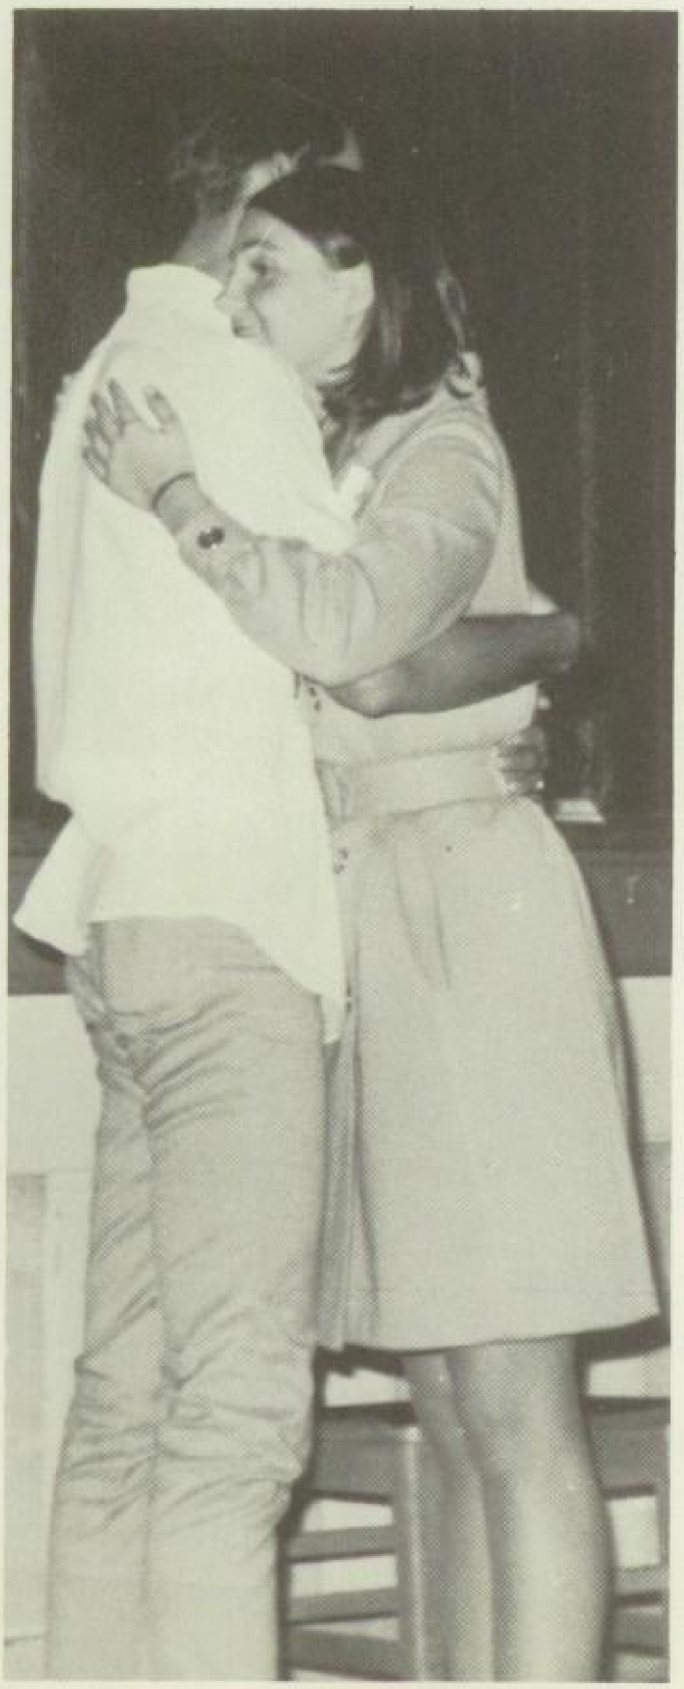


Sorry Chip, I'm tied up tonight.

Tell me dear, you've been both—do blondes really have more fun?



Don't cry Jackie, we can switch partners after the next dance.

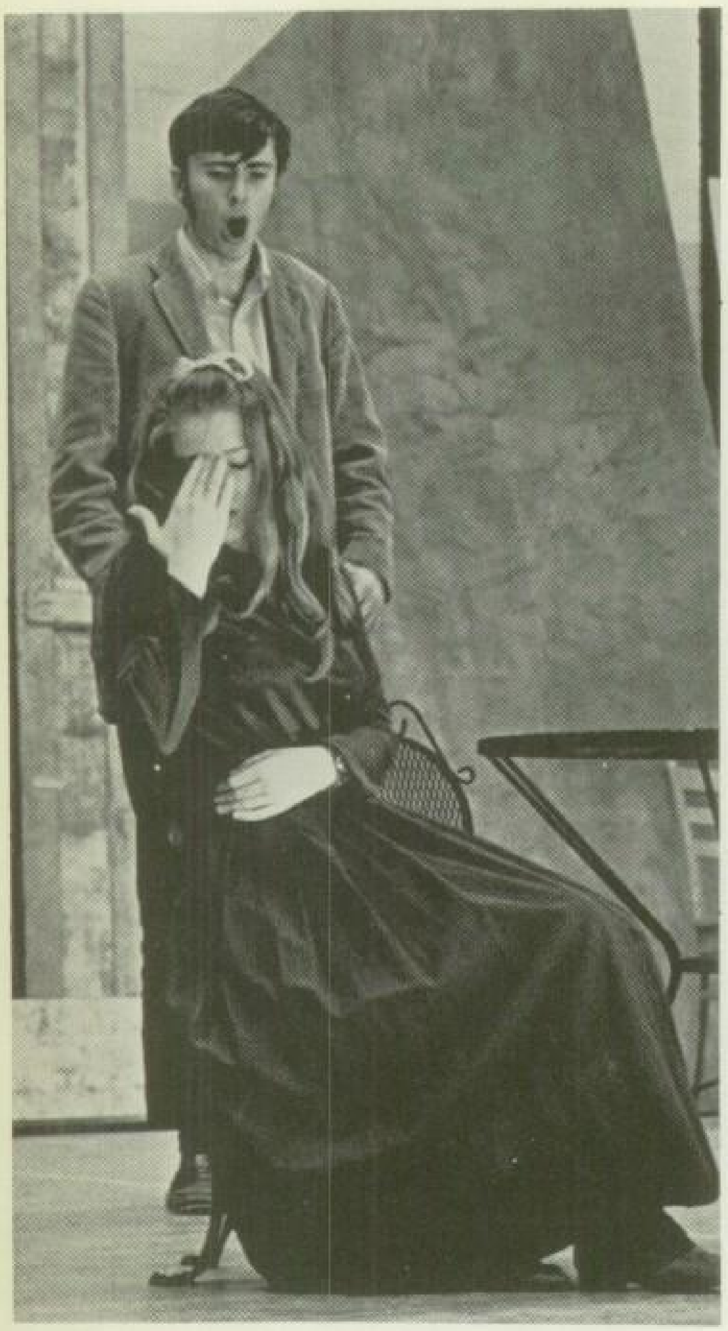


Don't you think you're a little too old to be burped.

Oh, Alan . . . a handshake instead of a kiss.

We Cried Together

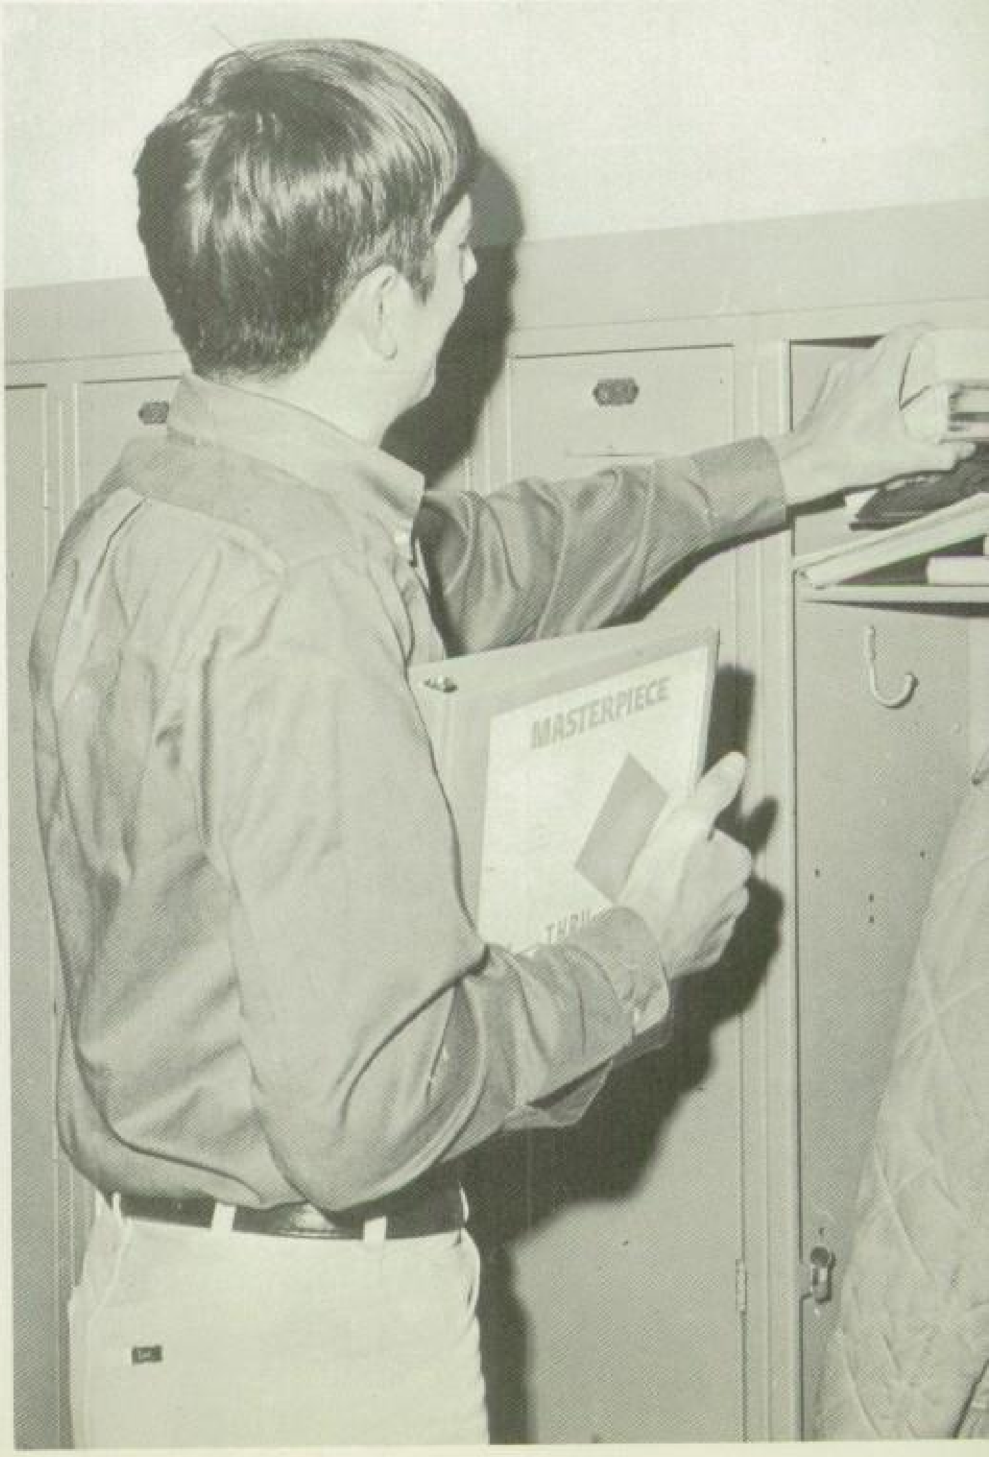
These Times Are Gone Forever . . .



Don't yell at me, I'll wear my mini skirt tomorrow.

You know, we really ought to start learning this week's routine.

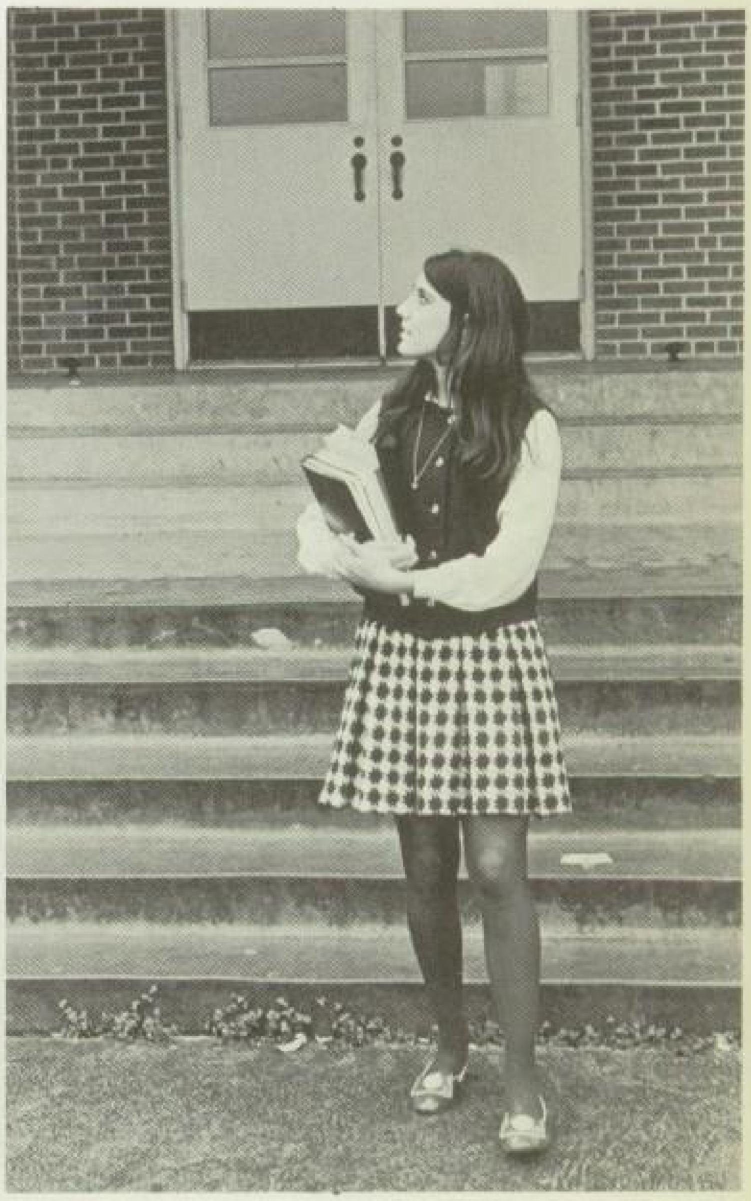
What do you mean you think your name should be bigger.

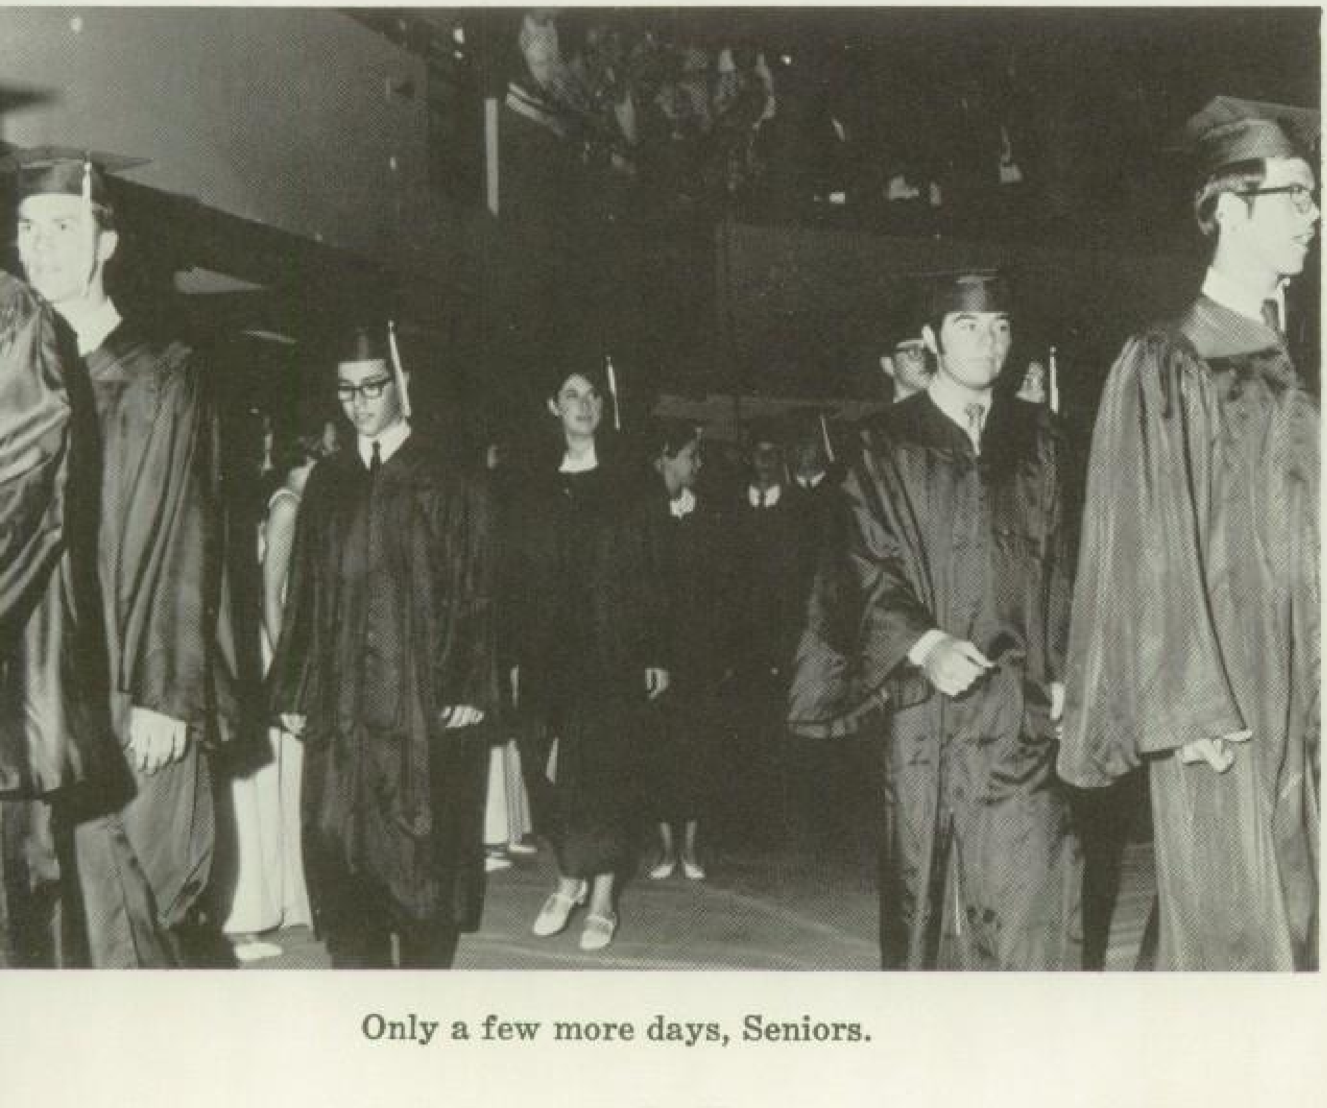


Some people really overrate the value of their homewor

Hey! get your hand away from my wallet.

And he said the next one would be a wedding ring.





Only a few more days, Seniors.

Never to Return

If you think these are big you should see my brother's.

Blow in my ear and I'll follow you anywhere.

Oh, Mr. Kelly, I was just rechecking my test paper.

Sixteen men on a dead man's chest . . .

You wear your tennis outfit, I'll wear mine.

I didn't get as many valentines as everyone else and now I'm going to end it all.

y 5 more days until the formal and my fairy mother still can't do a thing!

Maybe if he thinks I'm paying attention he'll give me an A.

Richardson let loose a tremendous offense as well as defense as the Eagles ripped by the Panthers 34-2 in the season opener, September 13.

Lincoln's Tigers pulled out a 38-24 victory over the Panthers September 20, in a nip and tuck battle that lasted throughout the night.

Bryan Adams, averaging seven yards per carry, dropped a crushing 40-15 defeat on the Panthers. Park and Allen led the scoring for Hillcrest.

After giving up 112 points in the first three games, the Panthers presented the White Longhorns a 6-0 shutout. Ellis caught a pass from Weatherford for the lone score.

Penalties played a big part in Hillcrest's fourth loss as the Samuell Spartans rolled in a 33-14 win. Weatherford completed 17 of 36 passes.

Adamson never was to have a chance as the Panthers scored first, never relinquished their lead, and went on to score a 25-14 victory in the Cotton Bowl, October 18. Kelly scored three times, and Petet scored once.

With the excitement of three kickoff returns for touchdowns, the Panthers managed to overcome the Trojans of Madison with a romp of 48-18.

Quick offensive moves allowed the Panthers to wallop Spruce 35-6. Ellis and Hartman took in aerials for scores, and Kelly, Allen, and Park tallied on the ground.

Highly-rated Pinkston fell to the Panthers as Allen scored twice, Sowden scored once, and Woodward kicked a field goal in a 23-0 decision.

Thomas Jefferson ended the Hillcrest winning streak at four games as they overcame the battle of errors scoring a 13-0 victory.

To the Best little
Nipper around -
Love Ya,
Mary

Oscar -
You are a great guy
even if you are weird & ricko - Thanks for the double to the Dance - it cost me 30 answers - Hope we all pass together.
